BIG COMPANY WILL REVIVE RIVER TRAFFIC

Corporation With $2,500,000 Capital Getting Barge and Dock Facilities.

PLANS ARE KEPT SECRET

L. D. Kingsland Admits Project Is on Foot, but Refuses Details.

BOATS TO NEW ORLEANS

Order Said to Have Been Given for Barges for Quick Delivery.

Public-spirited business men of St. Louis have determined to themselves establish a steamer and barge line between St. Louis and New Orleans, according to information reaching the Post-Dispatch Thursday from an authentic source.

Capitalization of $2,500,000 has been decided on, and it is said that this amount has been fully paid in. No articles of incorporation have been filed because the promoters wished to keep the existence of the company secret until all plans for operations had been perfected.

L. D. Kingsland, president of the St. Louis Manufacturers' Association, is one of the backers of the new project. If present plans carry it is said that the barge line will be running in about ninety days.

Barges and Dockage Obtained.

The company is credited with having already placed orders for barges to be delivered within sixty to ninety days. From the same authority it is learned that dockage privileges at various points along the river have been obtained. The desire of the company to get these under reasonable conditions is said to be the reason for the secrecy maintained by the promoters.

"Wait until next Wednesday, and then I will tell you about the project," said Mr. Kingsland to a Post-Dispatch reporter. "I don't want to make any premature announcement. There might some obstacle arise, you know."

At first Mr. Kingsland attempted to evade giving any direct answer, and finally used words quoted above. He said the steamer and barge lines are projected, but asserted that no orders had yet been placed for any barges.

"Now this is the way I stand," said Mr. Kingsland in conclusion. "There has been so much hot-air in the past about projected boat lines that I don't want to have any more of it. So I am not going to make public anything about what anybody intends to do. We shall wait until we have something to show before telling the public about it."

CAME NOT TO WEDDING FEAST

Gertrude Peppers Tells How George Gudermuth Broke Promise to Marry.

The $10,000 breach of promise suit of Miss Gertrude Peppers against George Gudermuth Jr. went to trial before Circuit Judge McElhinney at Clayton Thursday morning. The session of court until the noon adjournment was taken up by the plaintiff's testimony.

Miss Peppers is 20 years of age, tall, has blue eyes and dark hair. Her testimony was given in a low voice and with evident embarrassment. About twenty witnesses are to be examined and the courtroom was filed with spectators.

Miss Peppers testified that she first knew Gudermuth in September, 1903, and that in the following year he began to visit her frequently. In August, 1904, she said, he proposed marriage and Oct. 24 of the same year renewed this proposal. She agreed to marry him, she said, and the wedding day was fixed for Nov. 1.

Bridegroom Came Not.

On that evening, she testified, the minister was present at the appointed hour, 8 p. m., and several intimate friends of the family were there. For more than an hour they waited, but Gudermuth did not appear. Finally the preacher departed and one by one the wedding guests left.

The next time she saw Gudermuth, the young woman said, was in March, 1906. She had been informed that he first went to St. Louis and later to Chicago, after failing to appear on the night set for the wedding.

Gudermuth is now married. He was arrested some months ago on a criminal charge, upon Miss Peppers declined to testify and the charge was dismissed. In December, 1906, the breach of promise suit was filed.

Miss Peppers lives at Eureka, in St. Louis County, and Gudermuth, who is 22 years old, near Crescent, also in the county. In the breach of promise suit as originally filed the young man's father, George Gudemuth Sr., was named as defendant. The suit against him was dismissed on demurrer, however.

Hangs Himself in a Barn.

A. L. Hammel, who arrived in Edwardsville two weeks ago, a stranger, hanged himself in the barn of William Schwartz, a wealthy farme, living three miles south of Edwardsville. Hammel had fastened the reins of a bridle to a rafter, climbed upon a barrel, arranged the headstall of the bridle about his neck and kicked the barrel from under him. He was dead when found Wednesday afternoon.

Residence Robbed.

The residence of W. W. Wilson, 515 North Spring avenue, was entered by thieves Wednesday evening and clothing and jewelry valued at $100 stolen.

COMMITTEE OF HOUSE FAVORS M'KINLEY BILL

Six Members of Seven in Railroad Body Approve Entry of Road to City.

OF COMMERCIAL BENEFIT

Chairman Gazzolo of House Railroad Committee Favors General Proposition.

OPENS UP NEW TERRITORY

Nash Thinks It Would Be of Great Advantage to St. Louis.

Six out of seven members of the Railroad Committee of the House of Delegates have expressed themselves to Post-Dispatch reporters as favorable to the McKinley bill as a general railroad proposition because it will afford competition to existing lines and open up communication with a large section of Illinois from which St. Louis can draw business.

While the members of the committee will not state positively what action they will take on the bill, the majority of them say the bill in its present form seems to meet the requirements demanded by the public, and that unless there is something in it which they do not understand it will probably be reported favorably.

A public hearing will be had o nthe bill at 2 p. m. Thursday. The promoters of the bill have been invited to explain its features and the benefits that will accrue to St. Louis from letting in a new line of railroad. Such property owners as may object to the bill will also have an opportunity to be heard.

Plans have already been drawn for the new depot on Twelfth street, and soundings made for the new bridge across the river at the foot of Salisbury street. The bill has the approval of the 43 business organizations of St. Louis.

Gazzolo Favors New Road.

Andrew Gazzolo, chairman of the Railroad Committee of the House of Delegates, told a Post-Dispatch reporter Thursday that, as a general proposition, he was in favor of letting new railroads come into St. Louis to afford as much competition as possible, but that as the McKinley bill reached the House of Delegates from the Council Tuesday he had not yet had tme to investigate all of its propositions.

"I think we need more railroads," said Gazzolo. "We ought to have plenty of railroad competition. I don't believe in allowing the 'Big Cinch' to have everything. As a whole, the McKinley bill seems to be a good thing, and if there is not something in it that I have not heard of, I shall probably be in favor of it. We are going to have a hearing on the bill, and then go over the route of the proposed line.

"We just this morning got copies of the bill, and I have been reading it to familiarize myself with its various features."

Nash Approves Bill.

James J. Nash, another member of the committee, told a Post-Dispatch reporter that he thought the McKinley bill was the best thing that had come to St. Louis for a long time.

"Like the other members of the House, I have not read the bill in its entirety, but I think it is a mighty good thing. We want all the railroad facilities and as much competition as we can get. I don't think the Municipal Assembly ought to turn down a railroad propostition that will give us the benefits of communication with such a large Illinois territory, give us cheaper rates, and bring us business. I don't know all about the bill, but from what I do know of it I am heartily in favor of it."

William A. Metzler and Isaac Conran, two other members of the railroad committee, in interviews Wednesday, expressed themselves as favorable to the McKinley bill as a general railroad proposition. They said there were some of the details they were not familiar with, but both said that they wanted more railroads for St. Louis to afford competition.

Wants Competition.

Frank N. Simmons of the Tenth Ward said: "As a general proposition I am in favor of the McKinley bill. By that I mean that I am in favor of any measure of this kind which will insure to St. Louis the benefits of competition by bringing in and taking out and distributing freight here.

"As to the McKinley bill itself I have not read it carefully enough to say I favor it in its entirety. The bill as drafted may contain some point on which there might be a technical or constitutional objection. For instance from my cursory examination of the bill I judge the company wants to establish a gauge of 4 feet and 4 inches. I understand that the statutory gauge is 4 feet 8 inches. On a point like this the bill may conflict with the statutes. Such matters will have to be carefully considered by the committee.

"The spirit of the McKinley bill has my hearty sympathy, and I am for it in so far as it affords the competition St. Louis needs."

Needs All Facilities Possible.

James F. Connell of the Twenty-fifth Ward said: "I favor the McKinley bill in so far as I am familiar with its provisions. I have read the bill once and want to read it again before the Railroad Committee meets for the public hearing. The most of the provisions are all right. I think that any company asking a railroad franchise should be reqsired to condemn and buy property along the route the same as the steam railroads, and be subject to the same regulations. This is the only point in the bill to which there can be any objection, from my viewpoint. I think St. Louis needs all the competition in transportation facilities that it can get, and the McKinley bill seems to offer some measure of relief."

INDICTED MEN TRAPPED WHILE TAKING BRIBES

Two Alleged Frisco Grafters Are Said to Have Confessed Later.

ALL SEEK IMMUNITY

Ruef Is Indicted on 66 Counts and His Bail Fixed at $640,000.

HALSEY HELD IN MANILA

Officer Denies Entering Into an Agreement With Mayor Schmitz.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

SAN FRANCISCO, March 21.—The indictments returned yesterday against alleged municipal bribers followed skillful work by Attorney Heney and Detective Burns during the past week or ten days. The entering wedge was driven when Supervisors Lonergan and Boxton were alleged to have been trapped several days ago, by Heney and Burns, in the act of taking a small bribe. The confession of all grafting, with which they were connected, was forwarded last Sunday by Sanderson to Heney at Palo Alto.

Sanderson, who was a former schoolmate of Heney, went to Arizona several months ago and when he returned he was met by Heney. When confronted by the latter, with evidence already in hand, Sanderson reluctantly admitted his part in the taking of bribes.

With the confessions of these, supplemented by a mass of information gained from other sources, the remainder of the Supervisors, except J. J. Furri, were summoned before the Grand Jury Monday. When confronted by the confessions of their colleagues, it is said, they literally fell over each other to tell all they knew and thereby obtain possible immunity from prosecution.

The supervisors were interrogated and "sweated" by Heney and Burns from 11 o'clock in the morning until after midnight and made most sensational disclosures of bribery and corruption. It was largely on this information that yesterday's indictments were returned. George Duffy, formerly a supervisor; now president of the public works, has been called. It is said that Duffy, who has heretofore been regarded as one of the guiltless members of the board, is willing—in fact, anxious—to make a clean breast in order to obtain immunity.

This, however, has not yet been granted to him and will depend, according to Heney, upon the condition that he also tell of the alleged corruption in the Board of Public Works, where astounding conditions are said to prevail. While neither Heney nor Langdon will admit that the supervisors were promised immunity from prosecution if they confessed, it is practically certain that they will not be proceeded against. In order to convict the bribe givers, who Heney and Burns declare are the actual criminals, it is apparent that no attempt will be made to prosecute the "small fry" if the latter will give such information as it may have.

Burns refused to discuss the report that even Ruef had been promised partial immunity if he would confess and thereby enable the prosecution to trace the bribes, said to have been handled by Ruef, back to the officials of the public service corporation in such a manner as to obtain their conviction.

Burns, however, deplored the fact that such a report had been circulated and spoke of how often the newspapers of the city has embarrassed, obstructed and retarded his work during this investigation. He vehemently denied that an agreement had been entered into with Mayor Schmitz.

Although 27 indictments have so far been returned in connection with the alleged telephone graft, Burns asserted that the proving of that alleged graft had been just begun. During the grand jury session yesterday afternoon, E. H. Zimmer and former Editor Sherwin of the Pacific State Telephone and Telegraph Co. were under fire. Zimmer admits that he was closely questioned about the affairs of the telephone company, while he had charge of the books and was also interrogated about former general agent Halsey.

Halsey Arrested in Manila.

T. V. Halsey, the "outside" man for The Pacific States Telephone Co., who, it is charged, handled the bribe money for the supervisors from the telephone company, has been arrested in Manilla, and is about to begin his journey back to San Francisco to face trial on the ten indictments filed against him yesterday by the grand jury.

Halsey was taken into custody by Chief of Police Harding of Manila immediately upon the receipt of the cablegram from the authorities in this city. Subsequently, District Attorney Langdon was notified by cable from Chief Harding of the arrest and that Halsey had waived extradition.

It is expected that Halsey will be returned to this country on the next Pacific mail steamer leaving Hongkong, in charge of Chief Trowbridge of the United States Secret Service.

63 Counts Against Ruef.

Of the indictments returned 63 are against Abraham Ruef, for years the political boss of San Francisco, charging him with bribing the Board of Supervisors to grant franchises to the United Railroads, the Home Telephone Co., the San Francisco Gas and Electric Co., the so-called "prizefight trust."

Seventeen are in connection with the granting of the overhead trolley franchise to the United Railroad Co. immediately after the disaster of last April. Seventeen are based upon the money alleged to have been spent by the gas company to secure an 85-cent gas rate, as against a 75-cent rate; 13 refer to the passing of the money by the Home Telephone Co. to obtain a franchise for a bid of $25,000, and which it had been declared was worth at least $1,000,000, and 18 indictments are based upon the alleged bribing of supervisors by Ruef to grant fight permits only to the so-called fight trust of this city, which is composed of Eddie Graney, Morris Levey, James Coffroth and Willis Britt.

The money in all these cases is charged to have been handled by Ruef, who, according to Heney and Burns, was the agent and broker between the public service corporations and Board of Supervisors and a sort of general distributing agent for all who desired privileges from the supervisors.

Judge Coffey fixed the bail at $10,000 on each indictment, or a total of $640,000.

anything, saying he would see that all my requirements received attention. I had a letter to him from the said Thaw, in which the said Thaw asked the said Longfellow to have me followed by a detective, and also to see that everything I wanted was done and to see that I was not troubled or annoyed by anybody. I have received a number of cablegrams from the said Thaw, which I have delivered to my counsel, Mr Abraham H. Hummel.

I have been repeatedly told by the said Thaw that he is very inimical to a married man, whom, he said, he wanted me to injure, and that he, Thaw, would get him into the penitentiary; and the said Thaw has begged me time and again to swear to written documents which he had prepared, involving this married man and charging him with drugging me and having betrayed me when I was fifteen years of age. This was not so; and I so told him, but b cause I refused to sign these papers, the said Thaw not alone threatened me with bodily injury, but inflicted on me the great cruel bodily injury I have herein described.

WARM TONIGHT COOLER FRIDAY

No Rain in Sight for Opening Spring Days.

THE TEMPERATURES.

7 a. m.	58	11 a. m.	85
8 a. m.	64	12 m.	87
9 a. m.	74	1 p. m.	88
10 a. m.	82	2 p. m.	88

Today, the first day of Spring, is the warmest March day ever known in St. Louis. At noon the temperature had soared to 87, four degrees above the figure of Tuesday. The next warmest March day on record was March 29, 1895, when the temperature was 85.

On the street levels where the rays of the sun reflected from pavements and the walls of high buildings concentrated the heat the thermometer registered as high as 95 degrees.

The entry of real summer was made with the spotlight of the sun squarely upon him, with the lion and the lamb and the mad March hare dancing and singing together.

Fair and warmer tonight; partly cloudy Friday; cooler by Friday night; southerly and southwesterly winds; minimum temperature tonight about 68 degrees.

The same mirth and sunshine, the same radiant weather prevails all over the country save the State of Montana, where a storm hovers, and in the section west of the Rocky Mountains, where the Montana storm is causing rains.

The temperature in St. Louis at 7 a. m. was 58. The temperature in other cities at that hour was: Kansas City, 66; New York, 32; Buffalo, 32; Chicago, 40; New Orleans, 68; Denver, 64; San Francisco, 46; St. Paul, 40.

KILLS WIFE AND HIMSELF.

Peorian's Jealousy Causes Tragedy in Omaha.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

OMAHA, Neb., March 21.—Jealous, as his acquaintances say, James Kimberlin of Peoria, Ill., last night shot and killed his wife, Louisa Kimberlin, and then committed suicide. The deed was committed in a rooming house where the two had been living for two months since coming from Peoria.

For two weeks the man and his wife had been quarreling nightly and yesterday were ordered by their landlady to either stop quarreling or leave the house. Late last night a number of shots were heard in Kimberlin's room, preceded by the screams of a woman. Police were called and the door was broken open. Mrs. Kimberlin was on the floor dead, with three bullets through the head and one through the heart.

Lying across her feet was the body of Kimberlin, with a single bullet hole behind the right ear. Grasped in the hand of the dead man was a Colt automatic revolver, out of which five shots had been fired. Before the shooting Kimberlin had locked and barred both doors leading to the rooms in order that he might not be disturbed.

The Kimberlins came here from Peoria two months ago and are said to have formerly worked in St. Louis.

GIRL'S TESTIMONY FAVORS SIMOON

Ida Stetz Tells of Threats Against Youth Accused of Murder.

JURORS YOUNG AND OLD

Few Think Jury Will Return Death Sentence, Evidence Being Weak.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

UNION, Mo., March 21.—Evidence in the trial of Charles Simoon, charged with the murder of two other youths at Washington, Mo., last December, was all in by 11 a. m. today. The attorneys were given until 2 p. m. to prepare instructions.

Ida Stetz, over whom Simoon quarreled with a rival before the double tragedy, was the first witness for the defense this morning. She was followed by Annie Neier. Both testified to hearing Louis Dariot say before the killing in the presence of Emile Glaser and Walter Robertson, "We will fix Simoon if he comes to Washington."

They gave no other material evidence, and little was brought out in their cross-examination. Simoon's employer from St. Louis testified to his good character and reputation. Several witnesses were called in rebuttal, but their testimony was nearly all kept from the jury.

The general opinion here is that there will be a hung jury or that a verdict of guilty of murder in the second or third degree will be returned. Though Simoon and Walter Fink, who was with him at the time of the shooting, were jointly indicted for first degree murder, few who have followed the evidence believe either of them will be sentenced to death.

No Motive Is Shown.

It is known that the State will be satisfied with a verdict that will carry with it a long term of imprisonment. The absence of motive for the crime is a weak point in the case of the prosecution and the evidence shows that the fight was pretty general when Robertson and Buddemeyer were killed. Neither Simoon or Fink had even seen either of the men who were killed before the night of the tragedy.

The jury is regarded as one of the best that has ever listened to a murder case in Union. In selecting the jurors former Judge Johnson of St. Louis, attorney for Simoon, went to extremes in the matter of age. He chose the very young and the very old. Three or four of the jurors look like mere boys, though they have passed their majority, while several are certainly past 60. It is doubtful if one of the 12 men is between the ages of 30 and 50.

The trial of Fink will probably begin next Tuesday morning.

Testifies Against Her Son.

Because he called his mother, who had testified against him, by her first name and grinned when the Judge reprimanded him, John Brennan, aged 16, was fined $10 and costs in the City Hall Police Court Thursday. Mrs. Della Brennan said her son had a habit of overturning chairs and tables when he was angry. Mrs. Brennan said she would not pay her son's fine. "It will do him good to work it out," she said. The family lives at 916 Chouteau avenue.

Taken Back to Poorhouse.

Willard Long, an insane patient, was returned Thursday to the Insane Division at the Poorhouse, from which he had escaped. His condition improved so much at the Poorhouse that he was allowed the liberty of the yard Wednesday. He took the opportunity to escape, having first secured his clothes. He went home and armed himself with a knife and a pair of scissors and so alarmed his wife that she called the police. They had him taken to the City Hospital.

EXPERTS SAY THAW, HOPELESSLY INSANE, IS PUBLIC MENACE

Seven Well-known Alienists Submit Affidavits to the Court, Declaring White's Slayer Is a Paranoiac—Post-Dispatch Reporter Also Makes Sworn Statement Concerning Note Written By Thaw.

THAW'S COUNSEL AGAIN DISRUPTED; GLEASON ASSERTS DELMAS BLUNDERED

"I Am Perfectly Willing to Assume the Responsibility If a Commission in Lunacy Is Appointed," Senior Counsel for the Defense Retorts—Thaw Not Permitted to Hear the Arguments.

Thaw's Counsel in a Quarrel

John B. Gleason, counsel for Thaw: If a lunacy commission is appointed, Mr. Delmas is responsible. It was he who called Dr. Allen McLane Hamilton to the stand and told Mr. Jerome to 'go ahead and ask the witness anything he wished to.'

Delphin M. Delmas, senior counsel for Thaw: I will gladly assume all responsibility if a commission in lunacy is appointed.

Daniel O'Reilly, counsel for Thaw: We have no doubt that we will be able to convince the Court that Thaw is sane. We will make an affidavit that he is able to properly advise with his counsel.

NEW YORK, March 21.—That Harry Kendall Thaw is hopelessly insane, and that his dismissal would constitute a menace to the public, are the sworn statements of seven well-known alienists, whose affidavits, it is practically certain, will send the famous prisoner to a madhouse. These affidavits pere prepared today, and Justice Fitzgerald took the bench at 2:03 p. m. to hear them.

The experts' affidavits are supplemented by one sworn to by Irving S. Cobb, a newspaper reporter, who has been "covering" the Thaw trial for the New York World and St. Louis Post-Dispatch. It was Cobb to whom Thaw handed his incoherent note after Evelyn Nesbit Thaw had told her harrowing story on the witness stand. The note was published in the Post-Dispatch at the time.

Dr. MacDonald's Affidavit.

Dr. Carlos F. MacDonald in his affidavit declares:

"After careful examination of the exhibits, and the hypothetical question, and the testimony and affidavits of Mr. Cobb, and assuming evidence stated in the case to be true; my personal observation in court during the trial and also including certain observations that I made of the defendant in the library of the District Attorney's office on June 27, 1906, I am of the opinion that the defendant is now and for some time past has been suffering from a form of mental disease commonly known among men skilled in mental diseases as paranoia.

"Yet is my opinion based upon what has just been enumerated, that when the defendant killed Stanford White on June 25, 1906, he was then suffering from said mental disease, commonly known as paranoia, but that his then mental state was such that he knew the nature and quality of the act that he was doing, and that it was wrong, namely, that he knew and there knew that he was discharging into the body of Stanford White a loaded revolver; that it was Stanford White into whose body he was discharging a loaded revolver, and that he then and there knew that such discharge was likely to produce death, and that he then and there knew such act on his part was against the current morality of the people of this State, and in violation of law.

"I am of the opinion, upon the facts above enumerated, that the mental disease commonly known as paranoia, from which the defendant is suffering on the night of June 25, 1906, is a form of mental disease from which it is reasonably certain he will not recover and that the discharge of the said H. K. Thaw would be dangerous to public peace and safety and that he should be comitted to an institute for the insane. I am further of the opinion on the facts above stated that the said H. K. Thaw is now and for some time past has been in such a state of lunacy or insanity as to be incanable of understanding the proceedings against him or making his defense."

Exhibit A, to which Dr. MacDonald alluded, is a letter written by Thaw while in Paris, in 1903.

All of Thaw's attorneys were in court at the time set for hearing affidavits. Mr. Jerome brought the affidavits of his allenists to the effect that Thaw is suffering from an incurable form of paranoia, and at present is unable to advise counsel and realize the nature of the proceedings against him.

Justice Fitzgerald said that the District Attorney, having suggested that if the real facts were known he would have no right to be trying Harry Thaw for his life, he was prepared to hear what either side had to offer.

"Have you affidavits or testimony, Mr. District Attorney?" asked Justice Fitzgerald.

"Both," replied Mr. Jerome.

Mr. Delmas arose and said he had not been served with copies of the affidavits prepared under the direction of the District Attorney until 12:18 p. m. today. In a matter of such importance he thought the defense should have more time to prepare its answer.

Mr. Jerome said he had served the copies of the affidavits on counsel at the earliest moment he possibly could.

Harry K. Thaw was not allowed to come into court during today's proceedings.

Mr. Jerome said he would have to ask that Dr. Allan McLane Hamilton be orally examined, as the defense might desire to plead professional privilege in bar of his testimony. Dr. Hamliton having visited Thaw after the tragedy at the behest of his then counsel.

Reporter's Affidavit.

Justice Fitzgerald said he would receive the affidavits the District Attorney had prepared. These included the affidavit of Irving S. Cobb, the newspaper man Thaw selected to give out his statement concerning "the prosecution, backed by blacklegs," at the conclusion of his wife's cross-examination by Mr. Jerome, and the affidavits of the alienists who testified for the State.

Among those expressing the opinion that Thaw is now and has for a long time been suffering from paranoia are Doctors Austin Flint, Carlos MacDonald, William Mabon, A. R. Diefendorf, Warren Ferris, William Hirsch and William B. Pritchard.

After presenting his affidavits, Mr. Jerome said he wished to make a statement of his position in order to clear himself of any suspicion that he has been in possession of knowledge which had been withheld from the court.

"Your honor may have gathered from my remarks of yesterday," said Mr. Jerome, "that it was my personal opinion that Thaw is and has for some time been of unsound mind."

"I did so gather," interrupted the Judge.

Jerome's Statement.

"It has long been my personal opinion," said Mr. Jerome, "that Thaw is of unsound mind. But the court did not want my personal opinion. The court had to have something tangible before it could act. Likewise, I was bound by my oath to act when I had something to act upon. That opportunity was not presented until the defense called Dr. Hamliton to the stand. He is the one man who has the information which is of the utomst importance in determining the course of this proceeding.

"As long ago as Feb. 13 last, Dr. Austin Flint, one of the State's alienists, came to my office and told me that after watching Thaw in court every day of the trial he was solemnly o fthe opinion that the defendant was not capable of instructing his counsel.

COMPLAINS WIFE DRANK 24 PINTS

Husband Alleges She Used Case of Beer a Day—Judge Considers Divorce.

Whether a wife's consumption of 24 pint bottles of beer in a single day is ground for divorce is a question under consideration by Judge Reynolds in the suit of John Green against Mrs. Annie M. Green, tried Thursday morning.

Green is a mechanical engineer and formerly lived with his wife at 1819 North Grand avenue. He said on the witness stand that he had known of her drinking a case of beer in one day and said that he frequently found the house in disorder and his wife intoxicated when he brought men friends in to dine. On one of these occasions, he said, he found her in bed, fully dressed even to her shoes.

Green said that he visited the Pike at the World's Fair with a business acquaintance one day and while standing on the balcony of the Chinese village he saw Mrs. Green in the company of another woman talking to a policeman. She was intoxicated, he said, and did not come to him when he beckoned to her.

The grocer who supplied the provisions for the Green family larder took the stand and said that during the months of September and October, 1905, he sent 12 cases or 576 bottles of beer to the Green house.

According to Green's testimony he knew before he married that Mrs. Green drank, but said she had not done so to excess until recent years. They were married in 1895 and separated in 1904. They have no children.

Judge Reynolds remarked at the conclusion of the evidence that he did not think that, after the couple had lived together for 11 years, the wife should be turned adrift by a divorce, a prey to the cruelties of the world," when her only fault was a fondness for beer, of which the husband was aware when he married her. He said, however, that he would take the case under consideration and decide it later.

Atonement for Intemperance.

Friday will be observed in St. Leo's Catholic Church, Twenty-third and Mullanphy streets, as a day of atonement for intemperance. There will be exposition of the most blessed sacrament throughout the day, beginning immediately after the mass in the morning and closing in the evening with special ceremony. The members of the Sodalists of Father Mathew and the Ladies' auxiliary to the Knights of Father Mathew, the two temperance societies of the parish, will attend the closing exercises in a body.

MORPHINE CAUSE OF HARVEY DEATH

Dr. Scherck's Answer to 600-Word Hypothetical Question in Biles Trial.

DEFENSE IS PTOMAINES

Expert Evidence Stopped While Judge Muench Considered Question Raised.

Chief Dispensary Physician H. J. Scherck testified as an expert Thursday in Judge Muench's court that in his opinion Robert Harvey's death was due to morphine poisoning. Arthur C. Biles, on trial for killing Harvey, bases his defense on the argument that the chemical reaction for ptomaine and morphine is the same.

Dr. Scherck gave his opinion in response to a 600-word hypothetical question read to him by Assistant Circuit Attorney Newton.

Before he answered it there was a sharp debate as to the wording of it between Newton and John A. Gernez, attorney for Biles, the latter charging that it assumed facts not proven in regard to the time the men drank in the Ohio saloon and as to the exact nature of the wound in Harvey's stomach. Gernez won and Newton was compelled to reconstruct the question.

It is expected that the State will finish its case before the night adjournment, half of the witnesses having been heard Wednesday.

Complications in the case are expected; rumors having reached the Circuit Attorney's office that one of the jurors has been approached in behalf of Biles. Assistant Circuit Attorney Rosskopf has been investigating the reports.

State witnesses Wednesday swore that morphine had been given to Harvey at the Ohio saloon, that symptoms of morphine poisoning had been detected by the physicians at the City Hospital who treated him on his arrival and that traces of morphine had been discovered when the stomach and other internal organs had been subjected to chemical analysis.

Analysis Evidence Stopped.

Doctor Hartman, the physician who made the analysis, was stopped in his testimony by the counsel for the defense, who argued that, as medical authorities contend that the presence of ptomaines might give the same results as morphine under a test for morphine poisoning, the witness should be prevented from testifying.

As the defense bases its case on the supposition, which it claims can be supported by medical experts, that death was caused by natural decay of the tissues caused by ptomaines, they asked not only that Hartman, but other witnesses who might testify that morphine was found in the stomach after death, be restrained from testifying. Judge Muench took the matter under advisement.

Joseph Brown, companion of Biles, told the whole story of the plot to rob Harvey. He was not shaken by the attorneys for the defense. During his recital the jurors' eyes were fixed upon him as long as he was on the stand.

Saw Men Together Often.

William Buse, the waiter who attended to the three men most of the time they spent in the saloon, told of seeing them together six days before the murder and in the saloon the day of the crime. He also saw Biles and Brown return to the saloon two or three hours after it is charged they killed Harvey.

An important factor in the State's favor was the statement made by Brown that Biles approached him the night that he (Brown) pleaded guilty, in an attempt to persuade Brown to take all the blame. Brown said Biles promised him $3 a week as long as he was in the Penitentiary or either one of them remained alive.

WRANGLE OVER INJURED BOY

Clayton Child Was Knocked Down by Street Car.

Carl Morrison, the 5-year-old son of Jailer John Morrison, at Clayton, who was run over by a trolley car on the Kirkwood-Ferguson line at 2 p. m. Wednesday, has slight chance of recovery, according to his physician. The boy ran in front of the car, attempting to cross the track. His hands were crushed and his skull fractured.

The motorman and conductor carried the boy into the office nearby of Dr. J. B. Sudduth, who at once telephoned to Dr. H. J. Randle, physician for the company. Dr. Randle soon appeared and began work on the boy. In the meantime Jailer Morrison heard of the accident and sent Dr. G. C. Eggers to take charge of the case.

Dr. Eggers and Dr. Sudduth are not on good terms and Dr. Sudduth ordered Dr. Eggers out of the office, taking him by the collar and pushing him out.

Dr. Sudduth says he thought Dr. Eggers was merely "butting in." Dr. Eggers, on the other hand, says he announced when he arrived that he had been sent by the boy's father.

Later Dr. Eggers and Jailer Morrison returned to the office together and at the father's request the injured boy was removed to his home and placed under the care of Dr. Eggers.

ROBBED OF HER SAVINGS.

Garvin Home Servant Threatened With Knife.

A man who said he wanted to test the gas meter knocked at a rear door of the home of Alexander B. Garvin, 4749A Washington boulevard, Wednesday evening, was admitted by Emma Rodman, a domestic, and when inside the kitchen drew a knife, threatening the young woman's life if she did not give him money.

The frightened woman pointed to a cupboard in which she had put $9 savings. The man took this, and, again threatening death if any outcry was made, departed.

In reporting the robebry to the police the domestic said the man was about 30 years old, of medium height, with sandy hair.

Three Convicts Break Jail.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky., March 21.—Ed Lasche, charged with horse stealing; Kirk Bush, shooting with intent to kill, and Merrith Coleman, shooting in sudden heat and passion, escaped from the new County Jail this morning by sawing a bar. The men had been detailed to sweep the corridor and made their escape a few minutes after beginning work.

Alarm was given by Harrison Alexander, under sentence of death for criminal assault at Greenville, Ky. The Jail was only completed about two years ago and the builders claimed it was proof against any attempts to escape.

MURDER CASE DEFENDANT WHO RELIES ON CONFLICT OF EXPERTS

ARTHUR C. BILES

Cawein Wins Civil Case, Too.

The jury in the $10,000 damage suit of Dr. Rollins H. Barnes of 412 North Sarah street against Daniel C. Cawein of 3548 Laclede avenue in Judge Reynolds' court, Wednesday, only required a few minutes to reach a verdict favorable to Cawein. Dr. Barnes was shot in the left arm and shoulder by Cawein, Dec. 22, 1904, in a dispute over some Christmas trees Cawein had in front of his store. Barnes had knocked Cawein down twice and Cawein shot him. Cawein was acquitted of a charge of assault to kill.

Schweickardt Improving.

Ex-State Senator Charles Schweickardt of 1808½ Kennett place is in St. Luke's Hospital suffering with liver trouble. Three days ago his condition became such as to alarm the members of his family and his physician advised that he be moved to the hospital. Thursday it was said his condition had improved during the night and that there was no immediate danger.

U. S. BATTLESHIP PLANS STOLEN

Papers Showing Nebraska's Armor and Batteries Taken From Contractor's Desk.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

SEATTLE, Wash., March 21.—It was learned yesterday that the plans of the Battleship Nebraska, which show the distribution of armor and batteries, have been stolen from the desk of J. H. Fox, superintendent of construction at the Moran Brothers' yard in this city. The drawings have been missing 15 days. Today the following notice was posted in the yard:

"To whom it may concern:

"In reference to the booklet of plans of the Nebraska taken from Mr. Fox's desk, notice is hereby given that these plans must be returned within two days, or steps will be taken toward their immediate recovery."

The battleship Nebraska is practically completed, and ready to be turned over to the Government. About 5000 men are now at work giving the finishing touches. The Nebraska was started before the Japanese-Russian war, and the ship has been changed considerably.

The fact that the plans are missing and the peremptory language of the notice are causing considerable excitement about the Moran yards.

CARRIED ACID AS NEURALGIA CURE

Traveling Man's Mistake Kept Anxious Relatives at Telephone Two Days.

While N. A. Gordon, a traveling salesman, was hurrying from one town to another in Illinois, with a bottle of carbolic acid in his pocket that he had mistaken for neuralgia medicine, his wife at Jefferson City, friends in St. Louis and the long-distance service of the Bell Telephone Co., kept the wires in Illinois busy. They were trying to reach him and tell him of his mistake and spent two exciting days in the fear that he would drink the acid.

Gordon left his home in Jefferson City several days ago. He spent a day or two in St. Louis and visited his friend, J. B. Dodge of 952 Maryville avenue. On March 13 he left this city for a business trip through Illinois.

On that day Dodge received a telephone message from Mrs. Gordon, asking if her husband was still in the city. She told of his making the mistake in the medicines. Dodge at once called up Mount Vernon, Ill., the first stopping place of his friend. Gordon was not there.

The situation was reported to Toll Line Manager Gann and Supt. Thompson of the Bell company. One message after another was sent to every town that Gordon was likely to visit. He could not be located.

Early in the evening of March 14, they found he had been at Ashley, Ill., and later got into communication with him at Hoyleton, Ill.

He explained over the telephone that the neuralgia medicine and the acid were of the same color and in bottles of the same size. In his haste he picked up the wrong bottle. Not long after leaving St. Louis he started to take a dose from the bottle he carried. As he was about to swallow the acid he noticed the label on the bottle and threw it away.

Mrs. Gordon, who is a young woman, was nearly prostrated by the two days of fear and suspense she experienced.

CUT THIS OUT

A Recipe for Consumption and the Quick Cure of Coughs and Colds

A noted Philadelphia specialist states that consumption in every case comes from weak lungs which are sometimes inherited, but more often result from a neglected cough or cold.

Lungs weakened by nature or inflammation afford a lodging place for the tubercle germ and consumption follows. This is the whole thing in brief as stated by the great specialist. He gives a formula which has proven wonderfully effective in the speedy cure of all throat and lung troubles, and it is said will frequently cure a bad cold in twenty-four hours. The formula is the following: "Glycerine two ounces; concentrated oil of pine one half ounce; whiskey half pint; mix and shake thoroughly; use in tablespoon doses every four hours." The ingredients are obtainable from any good prescription druggist and can easily be mixed at home.

The Concentrated oil of pine is a comparatively new product, but was welcomed by physicians on account of its being soluble, a quality long sought.

Care should be taken to make sure to get the "Concentrated," which always comes put up in half ounce bottles enclosed in round screw-top cases, intended to protect the oil from heat and light, and retain its full strength of ozone.

Patent medicines of similar names put out by chemical companies and bulk oils should be avoided. If a person keeps the physical organs in a healthy condition they need fear no disease, and a cough or cold should be checked at once, or it will surely lead to serious complications.

AERIAL STUNTS AT CREVE COEUR

United Railways to Erect Tower 500 Feet Above Surface of Lake.

St. Louisans and others who have not joined the Aero Club will have a chance to go up into the air, notwithstanding, when the United Railways Co., has completed its plans for a park around Creve Coeur Lake. The steel tower that was removed from the World's Fair grounds and placed on the bluffs overlooking the lake, is to to be equipped with an elevator that will carry adventurous persons to its top, 225 feet above the earth and more than 500 feet above the surface of the lake.

The Florissant Improvement Co., organized to beautify the banks of the lake, will begin work at once so that the elevator in the tower may be operated this summer. The company is a subsidiary corporation of the United Railways Co.

The whole tract of ground owned by the United Railways Co. on the edge of the lake is to be sown in blue grass and parked between this and June. Flowers are to be planted, driveways and walks constructed and new stairways built from the bluffs to the bank of the lake.

For the benefit of those who don't drink liquors and can't drink the water from the lake the company has sunk an artesian well, 1300 feet deep. The waters of this well show the same medicinal qualities as those from the old Belcher spring in St. Louis.

Capt. McCulloch says the United Railways Co. is not going to conduct any sort of business at the lake, though eventually, he explained, amusement and other privileges may be granted to other concerns.

MOTHER SEEKS BOY WHOM HUSBAND TOOK.

EMIL FASSLER AND SON CARL

Mrs. Hazel Fassler, known by her maiden name, Broyles, is prosecuting a search in the hope of finding her son, Carl, aged 5, who was taken from her boarding house at 2012 Olive street, Monday, by her husband, Emil Fassler.

Mrs. Fassler says she has inquired at the bakery, 4027 Pleasant street, where he was employed, and at his lodging house, 2652 Pine street, but has found no trace of her son or husband. Her opinion is that he and the boy have left the city.

Mrs. Fassler has been separated from her husband for three years. She is a waitress at 215 North Enghteenth street. Her husband was in the habit of taking the boy out at intervals, Mrs. Fassler says, and when he appeared at the home of Mrs. Pleasant Byers, Monday, to get his son, no objection was raised. Mrs. Fassler says he took the child's clothing with him.

GAMBLING STOPPED IN EAST ST. LOUIS

For First Time in Sixteen Years Sporting Element Is Inactive.

There was no gambling in East St. Louis Wednesday night. The records of the last 16 years were broken by this quietude on the part of the sports.

There had been all sorts of rumors of investigations by the grand jury, but the leaders in the business were in the dark as to who would be caught in the dragnet. The first definite information relative to this was conveyed in the Post-Dispatch Wednesday. It proved at least a temporary knockout blow to the gamblers. It is thought that not so much as a penny changed hands in any sort of a gaming operation in that city during the night.

The palmy days of the gambler in East St. Louis existed about sixteen years ago, when the old racetrack was in operation. All sorts of games flourished then. Since that time there was always been more or less gambling. Wednesday night was the first time in more than a decade and a half that the gamblers of the city have been entirely out of business.

Leon G. Smith, manager of the Arcade Building in East St. Louis, is conducting an investigation to determine whether Room 221 was rented to receive telephone bets from St. Louis on races. The room was rented several days ago by a man who gave the name of Parker and three telephones were taken to it Wednesday.

Smith asked in surprise why so many telephones would be needed in the office, which is a small one in an out-of-the-way corner, and was told it was understood racing men were putting them in to register bets from St. Louis. This started the investigation.

THREE BURNED IN RESCUING GIRL

Child's Dress Caught Fire From Pile of Blazing Weeds.

News reached Jerseyville, Ill., Thursday of the fatal burning of little "Sis" Thompson at the home of her father, William G. Thompson, in Elsah Township, 12 miles south of the county seat.

While a pile of weeds was burning near the farmhouse Wednesday afternoon, "Sis," who is 6 years old and has never been given another name than the appellation of her babyhood, was playing near. She approached the blaze at a moment when no one was looking, her dress caught fire, and her screams called her mother and sister from the house.

Mrs. Thompson and her 12-year-old daughter, Jessie, tried to beat out the flames with their hands. Albert Jones, a farmhand, joined in the effort. They succeeded after all had suffered severe burns on the hands.

Drs. H. R. Gledhill and Joseph W. Enos were called, and pronounced the child's injuries so severe that recovery would be impossible.

Frank Becker Arrested.

Frank Becker, proprietor of a cigar store at 509 Walnut street, who was indicted at Mobile, Ala., recently in connection with the Government crusade against the Honduras lottery, was arrested Thursday morning. He was taken before United States Commissioner Babbitt, who released him on his own recognizance to appear at a hearing next Wednesday at 10 a. m. The specific charge against Becker is bringing lottery advertisements from Alabama to Missouri. His arrest is expected to lead to others in St. Louis.

Our Gathering of Fashionable

Spring Clothes for Boys and Young Men Is Not Matched Anywhere

(The Age Range is 2½ to 20 Years.)

CHOUTEAU AVENUE FREE BRIDGE SITE

Regarded as Certain That the Joint Committee Will So Report.

ENGINEERS ARE HEARD

Meeting Thursday for Final Action on Report to Be Made Friday.

The joint free bridge committee of the Municipal Assembly will meet Thursday afternoon to decide the site which it will recommend to the Council and House of Delegates for the construction of the bridge.

It is regarded as a certainty that the committee will recommend that the west end of the bridge be placed at the foot of Chouteau avenue and the east end at a point on the Illinois side of the river directly opposite.

That site was practically the only one considered at a meeting of the committee late Wednesday afternoon, at which Waddell & Harrington, the Kansas City bridge builders; Carl Gayler, designer of the Grand avenue bridge; and Ralph Modjeska, the Chicago engineer who designed the Thebes bridge and the proposed McKinley bridge, were present and gave the results of their investigations.

After the meeting Chairman Julius Lesser said there was no doubt the committee would reach a decision at Thursday's meeting and that it would be ready to report to the Council Friday afternoon as promised.

Borings at Chouteau Avenue.

Chairman Lesser declined to commit himself on the matter of location of the bridge, but from the fact that the McCully Construction Co., which made the two testing bores, were instructed not to do any further work, it is believed that the engineers are satisfied with the conditions at Chouteau avenue. To go north would, it is said, bring the new bridge in close proximity to either the Merchants or the proposed McKinley structure and the Government might interpose objection.

It was the intention to select the site member of the committee from the Wednesday, but D. F. Heffernan, a House of Delegates, was unable to be present. Chairman Lesser said it was desired to have the full committee act and to give every member an opportunity to be heard, hence the second meeting was arranged.

The drillers found rock on the Missouri side at a depth of 20 feet, but were compelled to go down 109 feet on the Illinois side before they found a firm foundation.

OKLAHOMANS WARN NEGROES TO LEAVE

Lawton Citizens Said to Be Arming and Trouble Is Expected Hourly.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

LAWTON, O. T., March 21.—"Negroes, beware of the whitecapper. We, the 60 sons of Waurika, demand the negroes to leave here at once. We mean go. Leave in 24 hours, or after that time your life is uncertain."

These were the words on placards, which the 80 negroes of the town of Waurika, 40 miles south of Lawton, saw posted conspicuously in many public places yesterday morning. The negroes hurriedly held a meeting and appointed one of their number, William May, to report to Sheriff Hammonds. May, accompanied by 10 negroes, reached Lawton and reported the situation. Deputy sheriffs went to Waurika from Lawton last night and will prevent trouble if possible.

Later dispatches from Waurika say that the whites are armed and in earnest and that the negroes will be killed if they do not leave town. Most of the negroes are cotton-pickers, who went to Waurika last fall from Texas. Numerous infractions of the law have taken place and the negroes have continuously caused trouble, the white citizens assert.

MISS LEMP AIDS INJURED.

Takes Little Girl Hurt While Skating in Her Auto.

Miss Elsa Lemp converted her automobile into an ambulance Wednesday afternoon to aid a little girl who was hurt while roller skating on King's highway, near Washington boulevard.

The child was Frances Goepel, 9 years old, a daughter of Frank Goepel of 5071 Washington boulevard. Her left ankle turned, fracturing a bone, and the pain was so great that she fainted.

Her child companions were standing helplessly about when Miss Lemp, passing in her electric runabout, drove up to the group and took the girl into the automobile. She drove her home, waited until a physician was summoned, and then continued on her way to the Washington Hotel.

ENGINE FALLS 200 FEET.

Passengers Have Narrow Escape in Rio Grande Wreck.

ANTONITA, Colo., March 21.—Eastbound Denver & Rio Grande passenger train No. 116, running between Durango and this place, left the track at a curve between Osier and Toltec Gorge, 30 miles west of here, last night, and 25 passengers had a miraculous escape from death.

The engine and tender rolled down an embankment 200 feet to the bottom of a chasm.

All the coaches left the track, several turning completely over, and the rest alighting on their sides. The engine crew jumped, and Engineer Smith of Chama, N. M., rolled down the embankment. He was overtaken by his engine, which passed over his body in its wild flight to the foot of the embankment. That he was not crushed to death is incomprehensible. He is quite badly injured, but not fatally. All of the passengers were more or less hurt, but none seriously.

Victim of Pickpockets.

Fred W. Clemens, president of the Clemens Seed Co., living at 3351 Gravois avenue, was robbed of a pocketbook containing $40 by a trio of pickpockets who operated on a Grand avenue car Wednesday night. Mr. Clemens and several other men who were on the car say they will be able to identify the trio if they are arrested.

EVERY MAN IN TOWN MUST WED

Fort Dodge (Io.) City Council Passes Ordinance Providing $100 Fine.

FORT DODGE, Io., March 21.—Every man in Fort Dodge between the ages of 25 and 45 years must become a married man as the result of an ordinance introduced by Mayor Charles Bennett and passed by the City Council yesterday afternoon. Any man failing to comply with the law will be fined.

The ordinance in part provides:

"All able-bodied men between the ages of 25 and 45 years, whose mental and physical propensities and capabilities are normal, and who are not now married, shall be required to obtain a license and a bride and straightway be exalted to a state of connubial bliss.

"Any person or persons failing to comply with the provisions of this ordinance shall be fined a sum not less than $10 nor more than $100, according to the degree of criminal negligence."

INJURED SAVING GIRL.

Mrs. Norah Costello Rescues Little One, but Is Hurt.

Mrs. Norah Costello, 2511 Slattery street, was knocked down by a Cass avenue car while saving a little girl from being run down by a car. She was not seriously injured, but as she is 60 years old it is feared the shock may prove dangerous.

Marie Noonan, 4 years old, was playing with other children at Benton street and Glasgow avenue Wednesday when Mrs. Costello, who was passing, saw that a southbound car approaching had not been heard by the children.

Mrs. Costello ran quickly into the street screaming to the children. Marie stood still, frightened into inaction. Mrs. Costello pushed her off the track just in time, and was herself struck by the car, falling to one side of it. Her head and shoulders were cut and bruised.

To Owners of Bad Breath—

Foul Odor of Indigestion, Smoking, Eating or Drinking Stopped at Once With Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges.

Trial Package to Prove It Sent Free.

Bilious breathers, onion eaters, indigestion victims, cabbage consumers, smokers, drinkers and those with gas on the stomach are in a class all by themselves, distinguished by a powerful bad breath.

They all breathe, and as they breathe, they whiff out odor which makes those standing near, turn their heads away in disgust. The pitiable part of it is that these victims do not realize what a sickening thing a bad, offensive breath is to others.

Charcoal is a wonderful absorber of gases and odors. It absorbs 100 times its own volume of gas.

Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges will put a stop to your bad, offensive breath, and to your belchings, whatever the cause or source, because the charcoal quickly absorbs all noxious, unnatural odors and gases.

If you suffer from indigestion and belch gas as a result, Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges will absorb all the gas and make you stop belching.

If on getting up in the morning you have such a bad, bilious breath, that you can almost smell it yourself, Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges will get rid of it for you quickly.

If you have been smoking or chewing, or have been eating onions or other odorous things, Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges will make your breath pure and sweet.

Charcoal is also the best laxative known. You can take a whole boxful and no harm will result. It is a wonderfully easy regulator.

And then, too, it filters your blood,—every particle of poison and impurity in your blood is destroyed, and you begin to notice the difference in your face first thing—your clear complexion.

Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges are made from pure willow charcoal, and just a little honey is put in to make them palatable, but not too sweet.

They will work wonders in your stomach, and make you feel fine and fresh. Your blood and breath will be purified. You will feel clean inside.

We want to prove all this to you, so just send for a free sample today. Then after you get it and use it, you will like them so well that you will go to your druggist and get a 25c box of these Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges.

Send us your name and address today and we will at once send you by mail a sample package free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 93 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

The "rest" is easy—just see 'em, that's all. We are certainly proud to show our Spring Tailoring Materials—no ordinary adjectives will describe the display and if we say all we think, it might seem conceited—so just happen in.

By Request—A Sale of Taffeta Silk Eton Coats

This Silk Coat, $3.98

Several weeks ago we held a sale of these Coats, and it was so successful that we were unable to supply the demand. Since then several requests have been made that we hold another sale, one letter coming from the "Afternoon Club," having been addressed to our "Suggestion Box."

We wired the manufacturer from whom we received the previous lot, whether he would duplicate the order, and he was kind enough to do so. One hundred of these dainty little garments are here. They are made of good quality taffeta silk, lined with Italian satine; three-quarter length sleeves. There are two kinds—priced $2.98 and $3.98.

The $2.98 Coats are trimmed with small silk-covered buttons, and have black and white cord edging all around.

The $3.98 Coats are neatly trimmed with silk braid.

The value in each instance is considerable more. On sale in Basement Friday morning.

BOARD'S ORDERS LED TO PRESENT GRAFT INQUIRY

Hitherto Unpublished Story of Events Leading to Suspension of Detectives.

DESMOND HAD A CHANCE

Was Told to Investigate, but Didn't, and Smith Got His Place.

KEELY WAS FOREWARNED

Commissioners Say He Was Told of Suspicions Before Recommissioned.

Considerable information shedding light on the inside history of the Police Department with regard to graft investigations in the past year is now made public for the first time.

It is of particular interest now that the trials of the suspended detectives have almost concluded and the Police Board has their several cases under consideration.

The statement has been made by former Judge Hiram Moore, counsel for the defense in the Cremin case, that he believed the cases to have been prejudged by the board. It is on that account and for the purpose of showing their attitude in the matter from the beginning that members of the Police Board have consented that the information now published for the first time should be given out.

In the trial of Assistant Chief of Detectives John J. Keely it was brought out in evidence that the charges against him were investigated by the Circuit Attorney with the knowledge of Police Commissioners in December, 1905. It has been remarked in that connection that the investigation did not result in the uncovering of anything to warrant charges against Keely and that the result was a practical vindication. This is denied by members of the board.

William Geist, secretary of the Pierce Loan Co., and "Bud" Fawcett, both of whom gave testimony against Keely in his recent trial, were examined by the Circuit Attorney at that time. Commissioner Maroney was then active in the graft investigations and was taking the lead in the work of the board along such lines.

While Keely was under investigation Maroney left the board. At that time the evidence against Keely was not regarded as sufficient to warrant a trial, but the investigation of his record was incomplete, the commissioners say.

Urged Desmond to Investigate.

The men who made up the board after Maroney's retirement declare they urged former Chief of Detective Desmond to push the investigations with regard to Keely and any other members of the Detective Bureau who might come under suspicion. They say that, despite repeated urgings, Desmond did not do as was desired.

The board members regarded this investigation work to be the duty of heads of departments, and that it was not the duty, nor was it proper, for the commissioners themselves to attempt to ferret out misconduct of members of the force. They say they waited and gave Desmond every chance to press the investigations.

They came to the conclusion, they say, that he did not intend to do as requested, and then came the decision of the board to put Smith in Desmond's place.

In order to overcome any legal difficulties, Keely was asked to resign the office of Assistant Chief of Detectives, with the assurance that he could have the office back if he so desired. Smith was made Assistant Chief, with a captain's rank, and later Chief of Detectives. Then Keely was reinstated in his old position. Smith had to advance from the rank of captain to that of Chief of Detectives.

Members of the board say, however, that before Keely was recommissioned he was told of the fact that he had rested under suspicion in the past, and that if he were recommissioned these suspicions would be thoroughly investigated. Keely accepted under those conditions.

The commissioners point to that as evidence that they have not prejudged Keely's case, as he was at one time off the force, and even before his resignation was handed in his commission had expired. They recognized his ability, it is understood, and wanted to give him a chance of clearing himself.

Stewart Gave Smith Directions.

On Jan. 23, or almost immediately after Smith was taken back into the department and given the rank of Captain, a letter was addressed to him by President Stewart.

This letter was directed to Smith, but he was instructed to go with it to Chief Creecy and Inspector McDonnell and the three were to co-operate in exposing any graft that might exist in the entire department, or in any branch of the department. No detective or policeman was named as under suspicion nor were any witnesses suggested save May Arnold, whose name had been given to the board by the Circuit Attorney.

The three officials, Creecy, Smith and McDonnell were directed to proceed at once on a graft investigation. They were told to press this vigorously and not to permit anything in the nature of improper conduct to remain uncovered if the slightest clew came into their possession.

They were instructed further to make no promises or bargains with any police character who might be questioned with a view to becoming a witness in possible trials.

The letter from President Stewart instructed the investigators to tell all such characters that they might hope for neither favor or reward from the Police Department by reason of any testimony that they might give and that, if guilty of bribing officers, they would be looked upon by the board in the same light as the dishonest officer.

The charges were drafted by Attorney James C. Jones of the firm of Jones, Jones & Hocker, who conducted the Cremin case, and then submitted to the commissioners, who inspected them for the purpose of ascertaining whether they were drawn in legal form. They were approved by the board and then served on the defendants.

The members of the board declare that they are eminently satisfied with the faithful and conscientious discharge of this duty by the officials assigned to its performance.

At 5 p. m. Thursday the testimony of Lieut. Nolte will be taken in the Keely case and at 10 a. m. Saturday the McGrath trial will be resumed. It is half finished. This will mark the termination of the trials, unless the board should ask that further evidence be submitted, which is possible.

LOST HIS FORTUNE IN SLOT MACHINES

Aged Alton Educator, Text-Books in Arms, Admitted to Poor Farm.

APPETITE UNRESTRAINED

Dismissed From School, He Lost Wife and Surrendered to His Weakness.

With an armful of treasured French, Greek and Latin works, Prof. Albert C. Williams, penniless, friendless, decrepit with age and palsied from drink, applied to Supervisor John Elble of Alton Wednesday for admittance to the Madison County Poorfarm. He was formerly principal of the Humboldt School at Alton and also of the public schools of North Alton.

Drink made his desire for gambling insatiable, and, through saloon nickel-in-the-slot machines, he has lost a fortune of $12,000 in five years.

When he applied to the Supervisor Wednesday for assistance he carried with him his textbooks, asking permission to take them with him to the Poorfarm.

Prof. Williams is 60 years of age. He was removed as principal of Humboldt School, the second largest public school in Alton, five years ago by the Board of Education, because of inebriety. A year after his dismissal his wife obtained a divorce, alleging drunkenness. Since then he has lived by himself at 608 Belle street, Alton. He has no children.

Lost Everything After Dismissal.

While an instructor in the public schools he made every effort to control his appetite for liquor, but after his dismissal by the Board of Education he lost his self-respect and gave himself up to his love for drink, which developed in him a mania for gambling. He is known to have seated himself in a chair beside a nickel-in-the-slot machine in a saloon and played all night, scarcely knowing or caring whether he won or not. So fascinated was he at times by the whirling disk that he forgot to pick money out of the cup when he won and saloon loungers usually benefited from his play. Often in starting to play he would buy $10 worth of nickels, sometimes $20, and even as high as $30 worth. Winning occasionally, he was usually able to play all day, eventually, of course, losing.

At the end of five years, his little fortune, on which he had intended to live independently in his old age, was gone. But his love for drink and the lure of the play led him on. His fine library he sold for a meager sum. Until recently he had a private class in French, Italian and others modern languages.

NEIGHBORS BATTLE OVER CAT'S DEATH

William Keogh's Skull Fractured, Carondelet Couple Are Locked Up.

William Keogh of 8119 Pennsylvania avenue now has a good idea of what life was in ancient Egypt, where it was a capital crime to molest a cat. He is in Alexian Brothers' Hospital with a compound fracture of the skull, said by the police to have been inflicted with clubs by his neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Louis o[illegible] nue. They suspected him of administering poison with fatal effect to their pet tabby.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis are locked up in the Carondelet Police Station. They do not deny the assault, but say they were provoked.

The cat died several days ago, and many backyard quarrels resulted between Keogh and the Louis couple. Wednesday night, it is charged, after unusually heated recriminations, Louis invited Keogh to step into the street, and when he accepted the dare, beat him with a club, Mrs. Louis assisting.

SHORT $68,000 HE FLEES.

Bank Offers $1000 Reward for Prominent Churchman.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., March 21.—Short in his accounts to the extent of $68,000, Frank H. Jones, teller in the Charlotte National Bank, hurriedly left Saturday night, taking a Seaboard train. News of the defalcation leaked out today and the profoundest sensation was sprung, because of the fact that Jones had heretofore stood high in church and social circles. He was an active member of the Presbyterian Church and had at one time been chairman of the Religious Work Committee of the Y. M. C. A., besides having for some time been teacher of Sunday School classes and otherwise religiously connected.

The whereabouts of the defaulter at present is unknown and the bank has offered a reward of $100 for his arrest. He was bonded for $20,000, and so the total loss to the bank is only about $48,000.

PUBLISHERS WIN IN BUTTE.

Union Orders Printers to Work —Cars Resume.

BUTTE, Mont., March 21.—It is admitted by some of the members of the Typographical Union that the printers have lost their fight with the publishers and that they have been ordered by the International Typographical Union to return to work on the terms demanded by the publishers. The printers were in session during yesterday and after a long discussion adjournment was taken until this evening when Jesse Baker, district organizer, sent here by President Lynch, of the I. T. U., was to give out a statement. It seems practically settled that the printers are to return to work at the old scale in effect prior to May 31, 1906. It is probable that the newspapers will resume publication early next week, or as soon as the necessary operating forces can be gotten together.

The street car situation was cleared up last night by the street railway lines giving in to the men's union and agreeing to the scale demanded.

Shoots Brother Over Cards.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., March 21.—Avery Pulliam, aged 21, is dead and his brother, Robert Pulliam, aged 18, as the result of a quarrel over a game of cards at their home in Cherokee County. There were no witnesses to the tragedy. Avery Pulliam declared from his bed under arrest that his brother was trying to kill him with a knife and that he shot in self-defense. There was an open knife found in the dead man's hand.

MUST WED OR PAY A FINE.

Iowa City Would Force All of Marriageable Age to Marry.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

FORT DODGE, Ia., March 21.—The message of Mayor S. J. Bennett to the city council, urging that every male or female of marriageable age persisting in remaining single should be penalized, was taken in earnest today by the Fort Dodge city council and an ordinance passed providing that "all able-bodied persons between the ages of 25 and 45 years whose mental and physical propensities are normal and who are not now married, shall be required to obtain a license and wed within 60 days or be subject to a fine of from $10 to $100."

The ordinance passed to its third reading amid great applause. Speaking of the matter today Mayor Bennett said: "If there are any who desire to escape the penalty described I will be at my office at all hours to perform the marriage ceremony free of charge. The day is coming when every up-to-date city in the land will pass a similar statute. The act is in the interest of good morals and a sound public policy."

It was supposed the mayor's message was intended as a joke, but the city council refused to accept it as such and now all officials say the ordinance will be enforced to the letter.

OUST FORAKER FOR BURTON?

Ohioans Believe Latter Will Succeed Senator.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

CLEVELAND, O., March 21.—The launching of the Taft presidential boom in Ohio by Representative Theodore E. Burton before the Cleveland Tippecanoe Club, in the opinion of Roosevelt Republicans of this State, is that Mr. Burton will be elected United States Senator to succeed Mr. Foraker.

It has been no secret for months that a strong alliance was forming between the Taft and Burton men, backed on the one hand by Mr. Roosevelt and opposed by Senators Foraker and Dick. The Taft movement is being taken up by many Republicans and his managers say that the next State convention will almost certainly be controlled in his interest.

WITNESSS ENACTS KILLING SHE SAW

Miss Kahre Shows How George Kern Clasped and Shot His Wife.

OLD WOMAN ALSO SLAIN

Defense Has Summoned Witnesses to Testify to Slayer's Character.

Testimony for the defense in the trial of George Gern, charged with the murder of his divorced wife, Mrs. Mary Lillian Kern, July 14 last, began before Judge Williams Thursday in his courtroom in the City Hall. All but two of the witnesses for the State were heard before the adjournment of court Wednesday at 6:45 p. m.

The defense has summoned 32 witnesses, most of whom will testify regarding the defendant's character. They are not expected to consume much time, and the case probably will be given to the jury Thursday.

Kern is charged in a separate indictment with the killing of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Annie Lutz. He is being defended by former Judge Bishop and Attorney Harry Walsh. The State is represented by Assistant Circuit Attorney Jones.

Witnesses for the prosecution testified that Kern, half an hour before the shooting, escorted his former wife to the home of her parents, 3902 North Eleventh street, where she was living at that time. He bade her goodbye and went to a neighboring saloon.

Returning to the Lutz home, it was testified, he shot the two women while they were entertaining a former neighbor, Louise Kahre, on the rear second-floor porch of the house.

The shooting was done at twilight, in the presence of Fred Lutz, an aged man, the husband and father of the two victims.

Mrs. Kern was shot once through the left lung. Mrs. Lutz, shot twice, fell across the body of her daughter.

Shows How He Held Wife.

Louise Kahre, 22 years old, of 4357 College avenue, was the prosecution's chief witness. She was within seven feet of the two women as they fell. She testified that she saw Kern place his arm about Mrs. Kern's neck, press a revolver to her breast and fire.

At the suggestion of the Circuit Attorney, Miss Kahre called her younger sister, Anna, to her side, and throwing her left arm about her sister's neck illustrated the manner in which she said Kern held his victim. With her right hand Miss Kahre showed the position in which the revolver was held.

Mrs. Lutz jumped from her chair on the porch, the witness testified, and ran toward Kern, pleading for her daughter's life. "George is killing Lillian!" screamed the mother. Two shots followed,, and Mrs. Lutz fell. The aged husband seized a chair, Miss Kahre said, and struck at Kern, who ran down the stairs.

Fred Lutz gave in the main the same testimony as Miss Kahre. William Hencke, a boarder in the Lutz home, said he was one of several persons who saw the shooting from a bench in the yard. His statement corresponded with that of Miss Kahre, excepting that he testified, as did other witnesses, that two shots were fired at Mrs. Kern and one at Mrs. Lutz.

Elmer Fretz of 3607 North Eleventh street said he purchased some cartridges for Kern on the evening of the tragedy. Within 15 minutes after he handed the cartridges to Kern, he said, he heard the shots fired.

John Getteman told how he and John Niemeyer rushed from the latter's home, across the alley from the Lutz home, and found the body of Mrs. Lutz lying across that of her daughter. Mrs. Kern's clothes were on fire, he said. The two men extinguished the blaze.

Other witnesses were John Manley of 917 Mallinckrodt street, John Dodson of 1508 Angelrodt street, Joe Fournier of 3619 Mallinckrodt street, Anthony Henken, brother-in-law of Mrs. Kern, Roy Manley and Mrs. Helena Mathews of 3619 North Eleventh street.

CANNOT REMEMBER NAMES.

Charles McCracken Suffering From Unusual Affliction.

A case of peculiar psychological interest is that of Charles McCracken, under observation at the City Hospital, who is afflicted with aphasia for nouns, or inability to remember the name of anything. Adjectives, verbs, prepositions, adverbs or pronouns he can recall and utter with ease, but he is absolutely unable to remember or pronounce a noun.

Even when anyone pronounces a noun in his presence, he forgets it before he can say it. But he can repeat an adjective or any other part of speech of whatever length. However, if anyone shows him a button, for instance, and tells him it is a piece of money, he detects the mistake, and, when the right name is called, nods his head in approval. But the name of the object has vanished from his mind before he can pronounce it.

McCracken's mental powers seem to be otherwise unimpaired, and to be quick and alert. He is unable to tell, of course, the name of the street where he lives. He is said to have been a salesman. Aphasia usually results from cerebral disease.

Couple Became Related by Parents' Second Marriage.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

PORTLAND, Me., March 21.—There was a novel and unusual wedding at the synagogue on Newbury street last night when Percival Albling and Fannie Albling Butkin, brother and sister, became man and wife. The groom is the son of Louis Albling by his first wife and the bride a daughter of Mrs. Louis Albling by her first husband. Thus the invitations sent out for the affair read: "Mr. and Mrs. Louis Albling request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their children."

The marriage was the culmination of a romantic courtship, the young people becoming personally acquainted with each other only after the marriage of their parents some time ago, and although thrown together as brother and sister, soon showed a different affection for one another.

TO MEET AFTER 23 YEARS.

Man Was Kidnaped From His Mother When a Boy.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., March 21.—After 23 years separation, William Porter, aged 27, who was kidnaped from his home in Marshalltown, Io., and his mother, Mrs. G. W. Norton, will meet here tonight for their first meeting since their separation. Porter is a prosperous resident of Grand Junction, Colo., and his mother resides at Marshalltown. A few days ago they became aware of each other's identity and whereabouts and communicated with each other. They united in a plan to meet in Colorado Springs tonight. Particulars of the kidnaping are unknown. The son was too young to remember the locality where he formerly lived and he was thus unable to get information. His parents were represented as dead. He had a vague notion that they were living and that the manner of his separation from them was forcible. Mrs. Norton is the wife of the Postal Telegraph operator at Marshalltown.

BRIG. GEN. WINT IS DEAD.

Missouri Department Commander Expires in Hotel.

PHILADELPHIA, March 21.—Brigadier-General Theodore J. Wint, U. S. A., commanding the Department of Missouri, with headquarters at Omaha, died suddenly at a hotel here today.

He came to Philadelphia to undergo medical treatment. He was 62 years of age.

NO DAMAGES FOR ASSAULT.

Bill Holds Attacks for Defamatory Justifiable.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

HARRISBURG, Pa., March 21.—If a bill introduced in the House of Representatives by a member from Philadelphia becomes a law, any person in Pennsylvania shall have the right to assault proprietors, editors or reporters of newspapers that publish defamatory matter against the offended person.

The bill provides that the defendant in any suit for assault and battery shall be acquitted if he proves that the person upon which the assault was committed wrote or published, within one year previous to the assault, any false or defamatory matter concerning the defendant or any parent, child, sister, wife or fiancee of the defendant.

The provisions of the bill extend to civil actions for damages arising out of a case for assault and battery. If the person who committed the assault proves the fact concerning the publication, the assaulted can get no damage.

MISSOURI BANK IS ROBBED.

Attempt to Blow Lexington Safe Is Unsuccessful.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

LEXINGTON, Mo., March 21.—At an early hour this morning robbers entered the bank at Wellington, 7 miles west of here and made an unsuccessful attempt to blow the vault with nitroglycerin. The robbers obtained $11.75, which was in the change rack and, it is supposed, were frightened away, as a set of burglar tools was left behind. A reward of $50 has been offered for their arrest and conviction.

HOW FIREMAN, SNAPPED LIKE WHIP CRACKER THROUGH AIR, WAS CAST HIGH OVER STREET AND INTO WINDOW

THEFTS TRACED TO NEGRO.

Many Robberies Laid to Man Arrested for Stealing Suitcase.

The St. Louis County authorities believe that Henry Medley, a negro, arrested in St. Louis last Friday for stealing a dress suitcase belonging to City Attorney A. B. Chandler of Kirkwood, is the man who committed a number of burglaries in Webster Groves and vicinity in the last three months.

Medley, also known by the names Smith and Watson, had admitted a burglary at the home of Glen W. Hutchinson of Webster Groves several weeks ago. Wednesday a servant at the home of C. P. Hutchinson, also of Webster Groves, identified the negro as having entered the Hutchinson home on Gore avenue, taking about $200 worth of jewelry and clothing.

Marshal Secrest of Kirkwood found in St. Louis pawnshops Wednesday clothing, jewelry and other articles identified as the property of M. W. and A. H. Schureman and G. W. and C. P. Hutchinson, all of Webster Groves.

Henry Volker, robbed by an armed negro in his saloon on the Manchester road, near Kirkwood, Feb. 6, says that from the description of Medley he is sure he is the man who robbed him. Medley has a scar on his face, similar to the one Volker says the robber had. Volker and a man in his saloon held up their hands while the footpad went through their pockets, taking $5.20 from them.

George Doerr, a contractor, was robbed on East Main street, Kirkwood, three months ago of $50 and a watch. Two negroes, one of whom answers the description of Medley, were thought to have done the work.

Ice Trust Case Amended.

To meet exceptions in the Ice Trust cases Circuit Attorney Sager has dismissed the proceeding as to the Polar Wave Ice and Fuel Co. in Judge McDonald's court, and has filed an amended petition naming only the Merchants' Ice and Coal Co. as defendant, which he charges with entering into a pool with the Polar Wave company Feb. 13, 1903, to control prices. Forfeitures of $100 a day from that date to July 15, 1906, aggregating $124,700, are asked. A case against the Polar Wave company is pending in Judge Foster's court.

ARIZONA IS STILL LIVELY.

Rough Rider Talks of State's Troubles to President.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—"Arizona still maintains its position as a lively State. There were four murders within a week out there recently," said Ben Daniels, the former famous gun-play man, rough rider and prospector, and at present United States Marshal of Arizona, who had a talk with President Roosevelt today.

"Two of these murders occurred in one day, and one of the shooting artists was a woman. The disturbers are of all classes—Mexicans, Indians, Americans and foreigners—and the Marshal's office is a busy place in consequence of this activity.

"Statehood is not dead in Arizona by any means, but just when it will be revived is more than I can tell. I am one of the very enthusiastic advocates of the idea. Fully 40 per cent of the votes cast at the election which defeated statehood ignored the question altogether. The people did not have time to become familiar with the ballots and therefore did not vote either for or against the proposition. Of course it is probable that just as many opponents of statehood were thus left out as friends, but it would make us all feel better if we knew that every voter registered his will on the question."

Wife Dead, He Dies of Grief.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

CHICAGO, March 21.—Orlando F. Gibbs, for more than 40 years a prominent resident of Evanston, died of grief 24 hours after his wife's death. They were both born in Blanford, Mass., and had known each other since childhood. They had the same family name but were not related. They were married in 1850. Mrs. Gibbs died Tuesday at 79, Mr. Gibbs was 81.

THINKS BRYAN WILL RUN.

Democrats Most Likely Candidate, Says Blackburn.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—Senator J. C. S. Blackburn, who is now a member of the Isthmian Canal Commission, in an interview last night declared it as his belief that Kentucky would hereafter be a Republican State. He said that the people of the State were tired of "boss" rule and would probably follow the example of Missouri and go Republican in order to turn out those in control of the party machinery.

"Despite his utterances on Government ownership of railroads, I believe William J. Bryan's name will be the only one presented to the next Democratic national convention," Mr. Blackburn said. "He more nearly represents the Democratic ideas than any other man."

Mr. Blackburn said that from all he could learn President Roosevelt was in earnest in his declaration that he would not again be a candidate for the presidency.

"I believe the President is sincerely in favor of Secretary Taft as his successor," Mr. Blackburn said.

Eskimo Woman Asks Divorce.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

SEATTLE, Wash., March 21.—For the first time in the history of Nome and probably the first time in the history of the world, an Eskimo woman has filed suit for divorce, the complaint having been lodged with the clerk of the District Court at Nome. Aggie Beale, alleges that she was married to a white man named Archie Beale at St. Michael in 1904. They lived happily together for some time, but the defendant finally tired of married life and deserted the plaintiff a year ago. Mrs. Beale was born at St. Michael and belonged to the tribe of Eskimos who inhabited that island before the advent of the white man in Alaska.

NEW CHURCH FOR CABANNE.

Messiah Congregation Breaks Ground for $60,000 Edifice.

Work will be commenced at once on the $60,000 edifice to be erected at the northeast corner of Morgan street and Union boulevard by the Unitarian Church of the Messiah.

Ground was broken Wednesday for the new building, the first spadeful being dug by Henry W. Eliot, son of Dr. Eliot, who founded the congregation in 1834. The pastor, Rev. Dr. John W. Day, and all the officers of the church then took a hand; and the excavation was enlarged by the efforts of Rev. George R. Dodson of the Church of the Unity and Rabbi S. Sale of Temple Shaare Emeth. The new building will be the fourth occupied by this congregation.

Hibernians to Meet.

DRUNKENNESS CURED

It will be gratifying to all lovers of temperance and a happy home to know that a simple and a scientific cure for the whiskey and beer habit has been discovered. Orrine never fails to cure drunkenness if it is used in accordance with the simple directions in the package, and the discoverer has so much confidence in the treatment that we are authorized to sell it with the absolute guarantee, to effect a cure or the money will be refunded.

It is in two forms: No. 1 to be given secretly, and No. 2 for those who wish to be cured, $1 each. Mothers and sisters have told us of husbands and brothers who since they were given Orrine, in many cases without their knowledge, have lost all desire for drink, and we are glad to recommend the remedy. Mail orders filled. The Orrine Co., Washington, D. C., or Wolff-Wilson Drug Co., 6th and Washington.

CONVICTED SLAYER GOES MAD IN JAIL

Missouri Youth, Under Sentence for Killing Sweetheart, Attacks Doctor.

MAYSVILLE, Mo., March 21.—Martin Paulsgrove, who is confined to the jail here, under sentence of death for the murder of his sweetheart, Miss Mary Newman, in January, 1905, was yesterday pronounced insane by Dr. W. J. Clark, the county physician.

During the night Paulsgrove tore all of his clothing into small pieces and flung the bits out of his cell. He also threw his lamp into the corridor and destroyed everything else he could lay his hands on. He also turned on a faucet, which is connected with the water tank, which supplies the courthouse with water, and turned the water into the jail. The jail was flooded, about 400 barrels of water rushing in.

When Dr. Clark entered the cell to examine him yesterday Paulsgrove made several attempts to attack him. He was prevented from doing so by the Sheriff. Paulsgrove was sullen and refused to talk all during the day.

At the time of the trial in 1905 insanity was the defense and the jury remained out 48 hours before returning a verdict of conviction. The Supreme Court on March 5 affirmed the decision of the lower court and yesterday overruled a motion for a rehearing.

MRS. NATION GETS NEARER RUM BASE

Will Soon Begin Crusade Against Liquor and Cigarettes in Washington.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—What's the matter with Kansas? Mrs. Carrie Nation says it won't do, and for that reason has brought her razor-edged, armor-plated hatchet to Washington and will henceforth live here.

"I want to get close to the base," she said in discussing her move. "Kansas is too far away from the seat of the rum trouble. The people in the East are cowards. They are afraid to oppose rum. I ain't. I'm going to start a crusade against rum that will make people everywhere sit up and take notice.

"Yes, and cigarettes, too. Cigarettes are just as bad as rum. I'm busy moving my plant now."

Mrs. Nation has brought with her her printing press and will hereafter get the "Hatchet," a monthly publication, out from 217 D street, Northwest.

"I've found one," was the report made to Mrs. Nation by one of her lieutenants.

"One" in this instance was a drayman who neither used tobacco nor drank liquor.

"Sure?" asked Mrs. Nation.

"Positive" the lieutenant answered.

"All right, engage him," Mrs. Nation said. "You know I never permit anyone who uses tobacco or drinks to do anything for me. Why, sometimes I've felt like walking when I saw the engineer of a train smoking a pipe."

Mrs. Nation says that now that she is in Washington she will take a fall out of Congress on the subject of temperance, but that she has temporarily laid aside the hatchet.

STONE SEES WAR CLOUD.

Senator Afraid We'll Have Trouble With Japan.

KANSAS CITY, March 21.—United States Senator William J. Stone, in the course of a speech here last night at the monthly dinner of the Knife and Fork Club, said:

"If we are ever to have serious trouble with any nation it will be with Japan. Japan wants the Philippines. I am not sure whether it would not be best for all concerned if she should get them, but one thing is certain, and that is that she will never get them with our consent. But we may have trouble in keeping them.

"Japan would seize the Archipelago in a week, and we could only send over a big fleet to wipe Japan from the sea. That would be a huge and costly task."

WARRANT FOR MRS. CLARK.

Joplin Home Defender's Neighbor Also Accused.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

JOPLIN, Mo., March 21.—A warrant was sworn out late yesterday charging Mrs. Belle Clark and Mrs. Mary Wiggins with felonious assault, the complainant being Victoria Wilde, who says she was assaulted in the home of Mrs. Clark when the latter returned and found the Wilde woman and Julie Messenger in the house with her husband, C. M. Clark. Mrs. Wiggins is a neighbor, whom, it is now alleged, took part in the affair and followed Mrs. Clark into her home and caught Miss Messenger and held her while Mrs. Clark beat her with a revolver.

MADDEN WON'T TESTIFY.

With Six Clerks, He Is Silent in Lewis Case.

Third Assistant Postmaster General Madden and six of his clerks, who came to St. Louis to investigate the Lewis publications, has refused by advice of counsel to testify in the case of the Lewis Publishing Co. against Postmaster Wyman, according to a Washington dispatch. Judge Shepard Barclay threatens to move for contempt proceedings in the case of their continued refusal to testify.

A subpena duces tecum commanding Mr. Madden to produce his report on the Lewis publications, which is said to have been favorable to the plaintiff, was disregarded, on the ground that it was a confidential communication.

C. A. Ekstromer and David P. Leahy, the committee appointed by St. Louis civic and business associations to submit a memorial to President Roosevelt asking for a new hearing in behalf of the Woman's Magazine and Woman's Farm Journal, the Lewis publications excluded from the second-class mails, left Wednesday night for Washington.

China Asked for Money.

SHANGHAI, March 21.—Viceroy Tuan Fang is convinced that the situation in the famine districts is so serious that a general uprising will be unavoidable unless prompt relief is afforded. He has, therefore, memorialized the throne, asking for $750,000 for the purchase of rice in Siam.

M., K. & T. Loses Maxwell.

J. W. Maxwell, assistant general manager of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas, with headquarters in St. Louis, will April 1 succeed W. E. Green as first vice-president and general superintendent of the St. Louis-Southwestern (Cotton Belt), with headquarters at Tyler, Tex. Mr. Maxwell entered railway service in 1886 as a messenger. He has been with the Missouri, Kansas & Texas since 1895.

AWAITS TRIAL FOR THEFT OF DIAMONDS.

CHARLES VINTON.

CHARLES VINTON, alias Hardy, whom the police call a "switch drop" man, and who was arrested in Cleveland, O., last week with the greater part of $1700 worth of stolen diamonds in his possession, is in jail awaiting trial on a charge of grand larceny. The diamonds were stolen from the Bolland Jeweiry Co. three weeks ago.

Vinton is a member of "Bud" Fawcett's gang. Fawcett, who with his wife, May Harrington, is a witness against the detectives now on trial before the board on graft charges, spent Wednesday sitting on the sidewalk on the Twelfth street side of the Four Courts. He looked like a police official with his chair tilted back against the wall of the building. Persons who know Fawcett say it was the first time they had seen him look so comfortable when in close proximity to police headquarters.

FLOOD STOPS CARS ON GRAND AVENUE

Leak in Water Main Diverts Traffic to Jefferson Avenue Line.

BIG STOP VALVE BROKEN

Force of Men Works 24 Hours Endeavoring to Find the Place.

A leak in a 12-inch city water main at Grand and Clark avenues Thursday stopped northbound street car traffic on the Grand avenue line and flooded the street for a block between Clark and Chouteau avenues.

The northbound track was so undermined that extensive repairs will have to be made before traffic can be resumed.

There was no sudden outbreak of water from the broken main. A slight leakage was noticed by a policeman Wednesday morning and was reported to the Water Department.

A force of men worked all day and all night trying to find the exact point of breakage. At 4 a. m. Thursday the flood had reached such proportions that it was necessary to turn the water off. In attempting to do this, the workmen broke one of the wheels of the big stop valve at Laclede and Grand avenues when the flow had been only partly checked.

Northbound Grand avenue cars were diverted east on Park avenue to Jefferson avenue. Thence they ran north over the Jefferson avenue line to its intersection with Grand avenue, near the old Fair Grounds.

STEAMER LINE TO MEXICO.

Navigation Company Plans to Help St. Louis Trade.

Plans to build up trade between St. Louis and Mexico by a river and gulf freight service between St. Louis and Mexican cities, have been submitted to the St. Louis Manufacturers' Association by R. C. Wilson, president of the Neptune Navigation Co. This company operates the Wilson line of steamers on the Gulf of Mexico between American, Mexican and Central American ports.

A river service between St. Louis and New Orleans is planned to connect with the Wilson line. Mr. Wilson proposes to transport Mexican and Central American buyers from their home cities to New Orleans without charge, and he desires to obtain special rates for them by rail or steamboat to St. Louis. Arrangements will be made for through bills of lading from St. Louis to the Mexican coast and interior cities.

WILL PAY FOR HUSBAND.

Gau's Second Wife Offers Money to First.

Mrs. Wilhelmina Maschmeier and Mrs. Ida Gau, each of whom considers herself the wife of August Gau, left Clayton together, apparently on the most friendly terms, for Pattonville, Wednesday. Mrs. Maschmeier had just succeeded in getting Gau, who is charged with bigamy, admitted to $500 bail, she being one of the cureties. His hearing is set for Tuesday at Wellston.

The charge was brought by Mrs. Ida Gau from whom her husband says he thought he was divorced when he married Mrs. Maschmeier. The latter has offered Mrs. Gau, if she will dismiss the suit, the sum of $250, which she says she will not mind spending if it will secure the undisturbed possession of Gau.

BETWEEN TWO FIRES.

Tenants Drawn Into Fight Over Flat Ownership.

A dispute between two men as to the ownership of four flats in fashionable Cabanne involved the four families occupying them in a suit filed Thursday to dispossess the families. The tenants are H. S. Gardner, F. A. Dickey, L. K. Mathews and Ludwig Guttemann and their families. The flats are at 5643-5-7-9 Cates avenue.

Log Sanders filed the petition. He asks that the four families be dispossessed, and sues each for $1000 damages and $200 for rent for two months. The man to whom the tenants have been paying the rent is Charles H. Take, a real estate dealer at 109 North Seventh street. Gardner says the two are in litigation as to the title to the property, and that the suit to eject the occupants is merely a step in the other case.

PICKPOCKETS ROB IN STREET CARS

Passengers Plundered by Gangs of Thieves Wednesday Night.

Pickpockets were unusually busy in all parts of the city Wednesday night and many complaints were made to the police by victims of the light-fingered thieves.

Rudolph Dittmar, 2022 California avenue, was robbed by two men who operated on a Jefferson avenue car. Dittmar boarded a southbound car at Jefferson and Laclede avenues about 3 o'clock. A few blocks further south two well dressed men boarded the car and began bumping against Dittmar, who was standing on the back platform. While the men were jostling him Dittmar felt a hand slip into his trousers pocket. He grabbed for it, but as he did so the car gave a jerk and the two men jumped and ran. Dittmar says he was robbed of $7.

Pickpockets also robbed Harry Parker, 5134 Easton avenue, while he was a passenger on a westbound Wellston car Wednesday evening. The same old trick of jostling was used on Parker. The two men he suspects boarded the car at Leffingwell avenue and got off a few blocks further west. Parker lost $27.

William L. Smith of 2311 Montgomery street, reported to the police Thursday that his pocket had been picked on a westbound Olive street car Wednesday evening. A wallet containing about $10 and a photograph was taken.

Fred W. Clemens, president of the Clemens Seed Co., living at 3351 Gravois avenue, was robbed of a pocketbook containing $40 by a trio of pickpockets who operated on a Grand avenue car Wednesday night. Mr. Clemens and several other men who were on the car say they will be able to identify the trio if they are arrested.

LOSES LAWSUIT HE WON.

Judgment for Somerville Reversed by Court.

A verdict was rendered in a case in Judge Sale's court Thursday after the case had been on trial four times, extending over a period of 13 years. The verdict was in favor of the defendant, Robert E. Stockton.

William Somerville said he had loaned Stockton $5000 in connection with a business deal. On the first trial a judgment for the entire amount was given the plaintiff. After that there were two mistrials. The decision Thursday directly reverses the findings in the first trial.

Ten thousand roses in the wedding decorations of Miss Rose Pfeiffer and Dr. Samuel E. Newman.

This is more of any one single variety of flower than has been used at a St. Louis wedding in the last quarter century. The now celebrated Busch-Von Gontard wedding, a dozen years ago, called for more cut flowers than this, since a whole floor of the Southern Hotel was decorated. But different kinds of flowers—roses, lilies, azaleas, carnations—were used.

The Pfeiffer-Newman nuptials must go down in social annals as the "rose" wedding par excellence of St. Louis. And the bride will look like one of her snowy namesake blossoms, in filmy robes of lace, satin and tulle.

Pearl white "brides" and blushing "pink bridesmaids" are the varieties to be used Thursday evening at the Columbian Club.

What could be more appropriate for a wedding?

This vast number was ordered three months ago. First the St. Louis market was scoured. Then when the home supply bid fair to become exhausted, for wholesale dealers here refused to promise, so long ahead of time, more flowers than they could be absolutely certain would be forthcoming, the outside hothouses were telegraphed.

This week Chicago, Hinsdale, Ill., and Memphis, Tenn., were drawn on, with the total of almost a thousand dozen blossoms.

They arrived Thursday morning in hundreds of boxes, all carefully packed and dewy damp, and as they were picked as buds, were in prime condition. Mr. Townsend hurried them immediately from the express offices to the big Lindell boulevard clubhouse that has been the scene of so many fashionable Jewish weddings, and where Miss Pfeiffer and Dr. Newman will be married at 6:30. All day long his men have worked with the lovely fragrant blooms.

Their arrangement is unique and was planned entirely by the ingenious bride herself.

In the lofty-ceilinged reception room where the ceremony will be performed, is a large canopy and bower, made, covered and lined throughout with the roses. Roses stud the smilax draped walls.

Roses adorn the high mantels. More roses peep out from a vine-wreathed staircase on both sides of the balustrade.

In the banquet room each of the 30 tables, on which an elaborate dinner will be served immediately after the ceremony, bears a handsome flat centerpiece of the two roses, small electric globes illuminating the flowers and foliage. The bride's table will be decorated in white roses. In the center will be an ocean vessel in miniature made from the bride roses, with a hull of pink roses. Flying from the mast is to be a pennant bearing the name "Kuhrfuhrt," the vessel on which the bride and bridegroom will sail for the Mediterranean on April 4.

Large Bay trees are scattered all over the house, lining the walls of the ballroom where dancing will be enjoyed by the 200 guests after dinner, and decorating the halls and anterooms. Each pretty, round tree will be trimmed with roses, skillfully placed amid the glossy green leaves to appear as if growing. This idea has never been carried out in St. Louis before, for a private function. Maude Adams, in her presentation of "L'Aiglon," several seasons ago, adopted it very successfully in the ballroom and supper scene, using electric lights instead of roses.

Miss Pfeiffer was a busy bride-elect on Wednesday afternoon. "A seven-months' wedding journey in Europe means that I must write all my 'thank you' notes before the ceremony," she said, while seated at her tiny boudoir desk; a pile of addressed notes in dainty gold-monogramed stationery before her.

"It's the last time I can use my old monogram, too, you know," she said smiling.

The maid brought in a parcel. Others had arrived by fours and fives for the past 15 minutes.

The bride tore off some tissue paper to reveal a slender colonial-shaped brass candlestick. "From Dr. Newman's head nurse!" she exclaimed. "Isn't that delightful? You don't know how many perfectly charming gifts I have had from all the people associated with him in hospitals and in his work generally. It is the nicest part about getting married—this pleasant remembrance from persons you don't know, but who are friends of your prospective husband."

"I'm so glad you like the roses for Thursday night. Be sure to come and see them when they are all placed. We just had to have lots of them for a 'rose' girl, you know."

LUCY HOSMER STOUGHTON.

Mrs. Shulz's Reception.

A family affair was the reception on Thursday afternoon given by Mrs. J. A. J. Shulz, 4407 Washington boulevard. Her daughters, Mrs. Andrew Grimes, Miss Mabel Shulz and Miss Edith Shulz, received with her.

Nieces to the number of three served the refreshments, being Miss Rofaline Klipstein, Miss Frances Fisher and Miss Clothilda Brown.

A daughter-in-law, Mrs. J. R. Shulz, a daughter, Mrs. J. A. Ferguson of Boston, and a sister-in-law, Mrs. William Klipstein, came without their hats and helped to entertain the guests, who numbered one hundred and fifty. The house was trimmed in pink, carnations predominating. Mrs. Shulz wore white silk, Mrs. Grimes a white Swiss gown with lace, and the Misses Mabel and Edith were in pale blue and pink crepe gowns.

The nieces who served at a round table elaborately done in pink, were all attired in pale pink chiffon and net frocks. The hours were from 3 to 5.

Hawthorne Boulevard Euchre.

Mrs. Anthony Holm and Mrs. C. O. Baxter, assisted by the former's sister, Miss Alma Holm, gave one of the important card parties of the week at their handsome home, 3145 Hawthorn boulevar, Thursday afternoon. The hostesses received alone, wearing beautiful spring gowns. Spring flowers decorated the drawingroom, reception and dining rooms. At the conclusion of the game, which was euchre, prizes were awarded and a course luncheon was served.

Among the guests were: Mmes. Charles Orthwein, Brinckwirth, Harry Weber, C. F. Blanke, Edward Buder, C. E. Curby, Edwin Conrades, Henry Conrades, A. A. Busch, Theodore Conrades, Donk, Charles Ehlerman, Frank Everts, Forster, Griesedieck, Herman Steinwender, Haeussler, Koken, Goertz, Otto Stifel, Herman Stifel, Nulsen, Harry Prufrock.

French-Fuller Wedding.

The marriage of Miss May Nellie Fuller and H. Edgar French was solemnized Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's aunt and uncle, Rev. and Mrs. Josephus Stevens, of 4136 Castleman avenue. The ceremony was followed by a bridal dinner. The bride wore a gown of white French mull and Valenciennes lace and her only ornament was a diamond brooch, a gift of the bridegroom. Mr. French is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse French of St. Louis. For the past few years he has been a resident of New Castle, Ind., where he and his bride will make their future home.

Invitations were issued Wednesday for the marriage of Miss Agnes Hanenkamp Delafield and Albert William Niedringhaus. The cards were issued by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Delafield. The ceremony will occur at 7:30 o'clock and will be followed by a large reception at 8 o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Delafield.

April Military Wedding.

The marriage of Miss Catherine Luhn, daughter of Maj. and Mrs. Luhn of Jefferson Barracks, and Lieut. James Fechet, will be celebrated April 10 at the barracks and will be a brilliant military affair. Lieut. Fechet's regiment is now stationed at Fort Sheridan, Chicago. The bride and bridegroom will spend a few days there before going to San Francisco, from where they will sail on the transport Logan for the Philippines. Where Lieut. Fechet's regiment has been ordered.

Mrs. Ernest De Lashmutt of Spokane, Wash., will arrive shortly to be the guest of her parents, Maj. and Mrs. Luhn and attend the wedding. Maj. and Mrs. Luhn and Miss Luhn have been stationed at the barracks for the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Kreisman gave a delightful dinner party at their Westminster place home Wednesday evening. The table was laid and decorated with pink sweet peas. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Niedringhaus, Mrs. Acuff, Mrs. McCann, Mrs. Barada; Messrs. Gus Nieman, Harry Cowdrey, Harry Troil.

Bott-Corley Wedding Brilliant.

The wedding of Mrs. Louise Aubertin Corley and Mr. Frederic William Bott of New Orleans was celebrated at the Buckingham Club at half past 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon. The rose parlor, where the ceremony took place, was banked on the entire west end with palms and ferns, while the columns and girders were covered with Southern smilax.

The bride and bridegroom, with Rev. Henry Stiles Bradley of St. John's Methodist Church South, who performed the ceremony, were grouped in the semi-circle of green, flanked by an orchestra, screened beyond the evergreens, who played in refrain "Lohengrin" selections during the ceremony.

Three hundred invitations were issued and many of Mr. Bott's friends from Chicago and New Orleans were present. A short informal reception followed the ceremony.

Dr. Gib W. Carson, a lifelong friend of the bride, gave her away and Mr. Joseph W. Bott of Dubuque, Io., a brother of the bridegroom, served as best man.

The wedding gown was an imported Parisian effect of champagne voile over silk, the entire bodice being old lace, with hand-embroidered trimmings and with rose-colored bars and rosettes. A supper followed at 7 o'clock in the banquet room, to which 30 intimate friends were bidden, including relatives of Mr. Bott from a distance, among others Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Faust of St. Joseph, Mo., Mr. and Mrs. George Lincoln of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Bott of Dubuque, Io.

Mr. and Mrs. Bott will leave on a late train Thursday for a three weeks' trip to Old Point Comfort. After April 15 they will receive their Southern friends at the Cosmopolitan Apartments in New Orleans.

Brilliant Thursday Luncheon.

The luncheon given Thursday by Mrs. George Hobiltzelle for Miss Frances Allison and Mrs. John Tritle of Kansas City was one of the most attractive of the many entertainments given for this popular bride and visitor.

Spring flowers and appropriate favors decorated the luncheon table and Mrs. Hobiltzelle received her guests wearing a French gown of pale gray crepe. The guests were: Mmes. John W. Harrison, George D. Markham, Mahlen Wallace, James Hoskins, F. J. Lutz, Gouveneur Calhoun; Misses Florence Harrison and Nellie Lutz.

BEGGS CAUSE OF INSURANCE ROW

Gives United Railways' Line of Policies to Markham Agency.

PROMISED DISTRIBUTION

Charge That Subway Support Had Bearing on Change of Policy.

The placing of all insurance carried by the United Railways Co.—amounting to $6,000,000—with the firm of W. H. Markham & Co., has provoked a storm among other St. Louis insurance men, who had hoped the account would be distributed among the various agencies in the local field. The yearly commissions on the policies carried by the United Railways Co. aggregate about $15,000.

The award of the entire account to the Markham firm, of which George D. Markham is the head, is said to be in direct contradiction to a promise by President John I. Beggs, that this year the United Railways Co.'s business would be distributed among the local agents so that "a friendly feeling" might be engendered in insurance circles. This announcement is said to have been made to members of the firm of George D. Capen & Co. several months ago.

Hints of Cause of Change.

As soon as the change of program became known anonymous letters, hinting that the preference shown Markham & Co. was based on George D. Markham's connection with the Mayor's Subway Commission, began to circulate. It was intimated that Mr. Beggs' departure from the plan said to have been adopted eight months ago bore a relation to Mr. Markham's appointment as chairman of the commission and his activity in the work of framing and passing the bill empowering St. Louis to build and lease a subway.

George H. Capen of the firm of Geo. D. Capen & Co., which has been placing United Railways Co. insurance, declined to deny or confirm the statement that President Beggs had told him of an intention to have the business written by all, instead of only one or a few of the local insurance companies.

"I can't afford to take part in this controversy," said Mr. Capen. He admitted that he had heard murmurs of disapproval among insurance men, and the charge that Mr. Beggs' change of base was due to Mr. Markham's connection with the Subway Commission.

Frank R. Henry, auditor of the United Railways Co., curtly dismissed a question asked him about the company's insurance.

"See Mr. Beggs," said Mr. Henry.

Mr. Henry in past years has had full charge of the railroad company's insurance.

Markham's Statement.

George D. Markham said he had heard of the reports being circulated in explanation of his company's success in getting the United Railways business.

"Two different sets of anonymous letters have been mailed to the newspapers and insurance agents," said Mr. Markham. "I have seen the letters and have heard the silly story that my activity in the Subway Commission prompted the transfer of the United Railway Co.'s account to us.

"The whole thing is founded on jealousy. The officials of the United Railways Co. told me they gave us the business in the hope of getting better service.

"My interest and activity in the subway, whatever it was, has ceased, except as a citizen. Without any request or knowledge on my part the Mayor appointed me temporary chairman of the preliminary meeting Feb. 5. The meeting elected a subcommittee of 15, of which Mr. A. C. Stewart was selected chairman.

"The original meeting over which I presided was adjourned without day and my connection with the whole movement ceased then and there. I am not a member of the Committee of Fifteen.

"It is insinuated that I went to Jefferson City to urge the passage of the subway legislation; also that I went there to defeat it. Neither is true. I was at the capital to prevent the enactment of a bill providing for a double tax on corporations. I don't recall that I even mentioned the subway while in Jefferson City."

Mr. Markham's account of the meeting in Mayor Wells' office and of his part in the preliminary and subsequent organization of the movement is substantiated by the official records.

Cures Drunkards

Mary's Miracle

The day of working miracles,
I'm sure is far from past,
And now to show you what I mean,
I'll tell you of the last
Great one that happened right to me,
For I was part of it, you see.

You know the life I used to lead—
O God, a living death,
A drunkard of the hopeless kind—
For, scarce a sober breath
I ever drew, and hope and pride
Were lost to me and nearly all beside.

One friend alone was left—my wife.
God bless her ev'ry hour!
She saved me from a drunkard's grave,
And whiskey's wicked power.
Just how she saved me you shall see—
This is the way she told it me.

When hope was almost dead within
Her faithful, constant breast,
She read of Dr. Haines' Cure,
Then without stay or rest,
She sent for one Trial Sample free,
And gave it unbeknown to me!

I drank of it at ev'ry meal—
I ate it in my bread,
While Mary watched me anxiously,
But ne'er a word she said:
Until one day I stopped to think,
That I had lost my love for drink.

When, quite unconscious I was cured,
My Mary told me all;
It seemed the very act of God,
A modern miracle:
I call it this, because my wife
And Haines' Cure had saved my life.

And now my little story's done.
My ev'ry word is true,
And what this treatment did for me,
The same 'twill do for you:
And wives and mothers—one and all,
Take heart of Mary's Miracle.

Save those near and dear to you from a life of degradation, poverty and disgrace. You can do it by cutting out this coupon.

Free Treatment Coupon

Fill in your name and address on blank lines below. Then cut out this coupon and mail it to Dr. J. W. Haines, 8946 Glenn Bldg., Cincinnati, Ohio. You will receive in return enough of the remedy to prove to you that it will cure drunkenness in any form. You give it in tea, coffee or food. The drunkard will stop drinking without knowing why. You will also get books and testimonials to prove how hundreds have been saved.

HARRIMAN HAS A RIVAL.

But Man Objects to Being Classed With Him.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

CHICAGO, March 21.—William J. Atkinson, who wrecked the Morton Park Bank, testified that his deal for a Waukesha Spring was "just like Mr. Harriman's Chicago & Alton deal."

"What did you pay for the Waukesha outfit?"

"I paid $15,000 in notes and some cash—perhaps less than $1000."

"And yet it was worth $85,000 or more?"

"Yes, sir. I got a great bargain in the Waukesha purchase. The value of the concern was no more represented in its purchase price than was the value of the Chicago & Alton represented in what Mr. Harriman paid for it."

"Then you consider yourself in Mr. Harriman's class?" said the attorney, smilingly.

"No, sir; I do not—and I don't want to be, either," said Atkinson.

Lamp Post Stops Runaway.

Mrs. Mary Francis, wife of Albert J. Francis, president of a construction company, is confined to her home, 4922 Maple avenue, with injuries inflicted when her horse took fright Wednesday night at an automobile and ran away. The animal ran south on Semple avenue from Easton to Minerva, where the buggy collided with a lamp post, throwing Mrs. Francis on the sidewalk.

Sandwich Killing Inquiry.

The grand jury has decided that Louis Richardson, a bartender, who shot and killed Pat J. Hynes, former pitcher for the Browns, acted in self-defense, shooting only after he was attacked, and returned an ignored bill. The grand jury will next take up the killing of "Bugs" Nichols by Edward Court, who says he fired after Nichols had insulted his wife and refused to pay for a sandwich.

Franklin Av. Property Sold.

Eugene J. Althelmer yesterday sold the business property at 1238-40 Franklin avenue, two stores and flats above, bringing in a yearly rental of $1578. The lot is 30 feet front. It was sold to Edward C. Hilmer for account of the Pierre Realty company.

$2.98 FOR CHOICE OF THESE $5 AND $6 WAISTS

Five of the leading styles are shown here—there are 25 others equally pretty designs to choose from at this price.

This is the extraordinary low price we have placed on all of these beautiful $5.00 and $6.00

Lingerie and Tailored Wash Waists

Which we secured by our recent fortunate purchase from the Knickerbocker Waist Co. of New York.

The selling so far has exceeded even our highest expectations—but the quantity was tremendous—3600 Waists in all—and tomorrow, again, you are privileged to share this wonderful value-giving event.

Until you see these exquisite Waists you can form no idea of their extreme high quality and beauty of design. They are direct copies of high-priced models—made from fine, sheer lawns, India linens, batistes and mulls—beautifully trimmed in German and French Vals. and Baby Irish Laces.

Some are plaited—others plain tailored—and in the lot are included the newest Martha Washington designs—these come in both white and colors.

Thirty styles to select from $2.98 Positively $5 and $6 Values

More Altman Voile Skirts—Just In

Good news! Another shipment of those beautiful Altman Voile Skirts has just been received—and will be ready for sale tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock.

The $12.50 qualities will be offered at $7.95

The $15.00 qualities will be offered at $9.95

This is striking proof of our determination to offer you the best value in St. Louis. These Skirts are made of the genuine Altman Voile—that fine, hard-twisted, wiry quality that gives such unequaled service. Good variety of styles to select from—in plaited and plain effects.

Lawn Mowers

You will need a Lawn Mower soon. Better get it now and be ready. We have a splendid line, each mower having been selected on its merits. We fully recommend every mower we sell. The price range is wide, as noted below.

The "Pennsylvania" Lawn Mower

Finest materials throughout, low wheel or high wheel, cutting widths 14, 15, 16, 17 to 21 inches.

Prices $8.50, $9.50, $11.00, $13.00 to $19.00

Other styles of mowers with cutting widths of 12, 14, 15, 16, 17 to 21 inches.

Prices $2.75, $3, $3.25, $3.50, $4.25, $4.50 to $14

Let Us Sharpen and Adjust Your Lawn Mower

WE PAY particular attention to this work, having a machine installed here for the sole purpose of sharpening lawn mowers. With it the cutter bar as well as the blades are evenly ground from end to end just as in the case of a pair of scissors. The result is a beautifully cut lawn free from ragged places. Our charges for this work range from $1.50 up, depending entirely on the size of the mower and the intricacy of its construction. Just phone and we will call for your mower.

The organs are waging a fierce war over the city tickets. The independent voter, with the welfare of the city in mind, will not need much organic aid in doing his choosing.

NO LOBBY COMPROMISE.

The State Legislature will make a grave blunder if it departs from the principle of home rule embodied in the Cooper bill. It would be regarded as a distinct concession to the public service corporation lobby—the leaders of which have indicated their willingness to accept a State Commission in the hope that it may turn out to be as inefficient in the matter of rate regulation as the State Railroad and Warehouse Commission. The fight should be made on a bill granting the power of regulation to municipalities.

When Gov. Folk tentatively suggested a State Commission previous to the meeting of the Legislature, the Post-Dispatch commended the suggestion as a promising method of protecting the people of the cities from the oppression of public utility monopolies. The commendation was directed in the main to the policy of regulation. We regarded the suggestion as embodying a valuable general principle and as offering a means of preventing the subjection of the people of the municipalities of the State to burdensome rates and charges for public service. But between a State Commission appointed by the Governor and the principle of control by the governments of the municipalities, we do not hesitate to say that the power should be placed where it belongs—in the hands of the people of the cities. The principle of home rule in this matter is sound. Not only would a State Commission violate that principle and increase to a menacing degree the power and influence of the Governor—which might be used for political purposes—but it would be impossible for a State Commission to know the needs of the people of the municipalities as well as their own representatives; nor would a State Commission be responsive to their demands for relief. They can enforce their demands upon the local Legislature, but would be powerless to influence a State Commission.

Gov. Folk and the Legislature should stand squarely on the issue that has been made in favor of granting to municipalities directly the power to curb the greed of public service monopolies.

A Senator of the United States is a well-behaved jail prisoner, but now that the people are having more to say in the choice of senators, it is hoped that jails for them will be no longer necessary.

THE UNASSIMILATED MARANI.

With all our great assimilative powers, we failed to assimilate Natali Marani.

Natali was at the St. Louis Union Station Wednesday. With him were his wife, their five daughters and their three sons, all playing guitars between trains and singing as only a Neapolitan can sing. Two years ago they went out to the Nevada gold fields. All of them worked, and they all saved money. Natali says it is enough to keep them in comfort for all the rest of their lives—in Italy. So they are going back. The father is singing a little something from Verdi, the mother is crooning a bit by Donizetti, the girls are strumming something by Puccini, and the three lusty sons are bull-roaring in the smoker something from some of the lesser Italian composers, whose works are more suitable to serenades by a male chorus. They are all very grateful to America, and they are very happy—for they are going back to musical Italy, where the sun shines all day for nothing and meals emerge three times a day for the next thing to nothing.

Somehow, we couldn't assimilate Marani. He never got the American idea—he got enough.

PUBLICITY AND EDUCATION.

When the Court of Appeals issues a peremptory writ of mandamus for the production of the books of the Transit company, it seems, under the decision of the Supreme Court, that the peremptory nature of the order is a waste of judicial energy.

Still, the emphasis is gratifying and the publicity possible from a close examination of the books may be much more so.

The case is one which calls for calmness and deliberate impartiality on the part of the public. It is one of the most remarkable cases in the whole history of the law in this or any other country.

Here was a powerful corporation, wealthy, and with a demonstrated ability to say who is who and what is what in the management of St. Louis affairs. We might sometimes execrate, but we were obliged to respect it, because of the way it did things with us whether we liked it or not.

Suddenly this great and influential "entity" went out of existence like a flash of lycopodium in the crisis at the theater. It left no goods to pay its debts because all its goods were in the lawful possession of the same men who had operated it, now engaged, however, in operating another distinctly different corporation which had taken its place.

If this ever made anyone angry, that person should now become serenely calm. It appears from the decision of the Supreme Court that all this was law. Hence all we wish now, or have a right to wish, is a larger knowledge of the law and of how it worked in the game.

At the end of the game, the philosopher who has been "cleaned out" does not fume and fret. He merely asks (and asks politely) for permission to inspect the pack and "get the run of the cards" as they were run out against him. This is the ultimate object of publicity—to show the run of the cards. While the demonstration is going on, all who are interested can best promote their own education by keeping entirely cool and calm.

A downtown church has a penny bank, elocution lessons, music lessons, an entertainment course, a millinery class, a class in English, a sewing school, a cooking class, a church book store, a reading room, a chorus class, a legal bureau and medical attention. What big church in the West End could hope to surpass the good work of this downtown church?

ACTION WANTED.

It is hoped that the public hearing on the McKinley bill before the Railroad Committee of the House of Delegates today will be the last one. The work on this important measure has been made up mostly of long silences, punctuated with public hearings. After weeks of consideration, the Council was satisfied with the bill; the business men are satisfied with the bill; the people are satisfied with the bill. With one more hearing, the Railroad Committee of the House of Delegates—whose members have had ample opportunity to hear everything that is to be heard concerning the measure—ought to be satisfied with the bill.

What is wanted now is not more hearings, more amendments, more delay, but action. The bill pending before the House Railroad Committee has been carefully amended by a committee of business men. It is approved by the business men; it is approved by unbiased citizens who want St. Louis to have the benefit of connection with the McKinley interurban system. The only persons in St. Louis who oppose the bill are representatives of interests who want the city closed against any railway system except their own.

The Post-Dispatch opposed the McKinley bill so long as we thought it failed to protect public interests. In the form in which it now is presented to the Railroad Committee of the House, we believe it to be a good bill, in the interest of the people of St. Louis. Let us have prompt action.

DOUBLE CHINS IN HISTORY.

When Congressman Theodore E. Burton announces to Ohio that it is to supply the next Republican "standard bearer," he tells them that as a "favorite son of Ohio," Secretary Taft is a second Roosevelt, the one man who can be relied on as Rooseveltian under all circumstances which make it impossible for the great, original Rough Rider to get to the front in person.

We have heard eloquence of this kind before from Congressman Burton and others. It is at times impressive, but never conclusive against physical facts.

It is a physical fact that Secretary Taft has a double chin of the most pronounced and unmistakable character, which is still in process of further development.

Everything now said of his heroic qualities was once said of Gen. Scott. At the crisis, however, when a Theodore Roosevelt would have leaped from the ground into the saddle and swept to the front with a wild rush of irresistible energy, the bridle in his teeth, his sword in one hand and the Big Stick in the other, Gen. Scott had developed a double chin of the kind Secretary Taft now cultivates. He passed into history in the act of sending for a step-ladder to mount his horse.

So, in the neighborhood of San Juan Hill, when Col. Roosevelt was being photographed in a dozen different positions, showing his ability to overcome the Insuperable by "rushing" it, another man, a General, a one-time hero, who had developed a double chin like Secretary Taft's, had to stop to rest in a hammock and be fanned before he could get further to the front.

This is history, and history repeats itself in the case of Ohio men as of other men, with and without unchecked double chins.

The Supreme Court decision that one may hunt without a license in his own county will not benefit St. Louis hunters. They haven't any county.

THE ISSUE IN ST. LOUIS.

The political issue in St. Louis this Spring may have a hundred different questions in it, but when they are boiled down, they all result in the question of what kind of a town the people of St. Louis ought to live in.

What kind of a town ought it to be?

It ought to be a growing town, with room constantly increasing in it for a constantly increasing number of people.

It ought to be an improving town, with better surroundings in it for the people who live in it and with increasing conveniences in it for the life both of the mind and the body.

It ought to be a town in which home-owners are not crowded out of small homes by constantly increasing public costs, piled on their homes until only great capitalists can afford to "carry" property that is visible for taxation.

It ought to be a town governed by its own people, so that each one will be safe in his own right and unsafe in trespassing on the right of any one else.

This is the sort of a town St. Louis will be as the greatest city of the Mississippi Valley in the Twentieth Century.

Find the men who will represent that sort of a town and stand for them against those who will not.

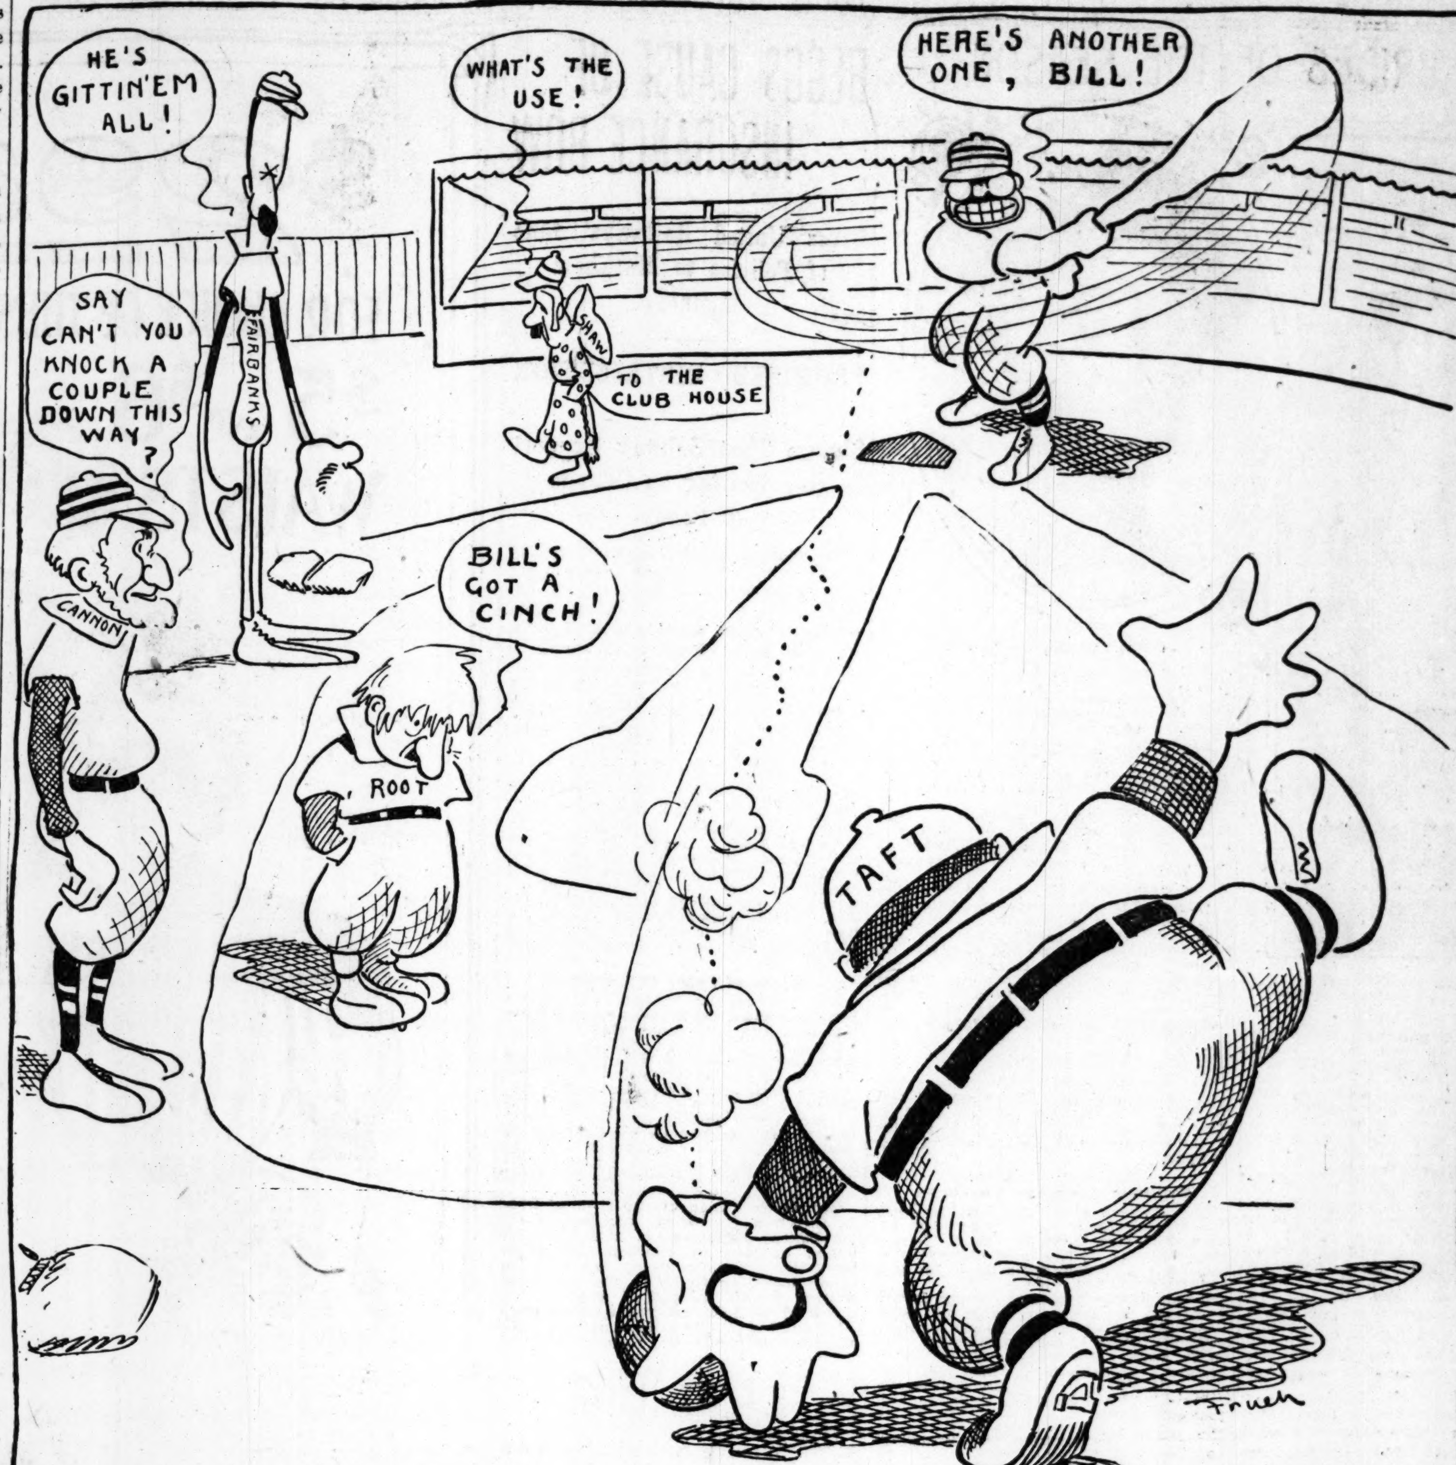

We don't want either Democratic or Republican graft. This should be made very clear in the spring election.

AMAZING MOTOR FIGURES.

The impressive disclosure of latest motor figures is, that whereas in 1901, France, the pioneer manufacturer of automobiles, built 23,397 more automobiles than did America, in 1906 America turned out 5000 more than France. And the still further impressive element of this showing is the jump by America from 314 cars in 1901 to 60,000 in 1906.

PLANTING THE DOUGH.

(After Bryant.)

Come, let us plant a little dough.
In some safekeeping place let's lay
A portion of our wealth away;
There wisely put some little share,
And using it at all forswear
Until fell fate shall lay us low
And we are sere and gone to seed
And stand confronted by the need
Of coin to pay the bills we owe.

What plant we in this little dough?
Buds, which in time shall be reflex
Of wisdom when we're writing checks;
Boughs where the Santa Claus of time
Shall hang a dear home stairs to climb;
We plant the one surcease from woe—
The boone above all others blest
To after life's long labor, rest—
When all of us shall older grow.

And time shall add unto this dough.
Oh, when its aged sum shall greet
Our tired eyes, it shall be sweet;
And, gazing on its goodly size,
We then and there shall realize
A joy that now we do not know—
That is, if (sadly to submit)
The bankers don't run off with it,
Which were, indeed, a cruel blow.

OPENING THE SEASON.

BILLEVILLE, Mo., March 20.—The Farmers' Anti-Automobile Association held its annual meeting in Jake Snyder's store today and adopted the following rules for the automobile season:

1. In case road is only wide enough for one vehicle, that's the automobile's lookout.
2. All members of the Association will drive unbroken colts on Saturdays and Sundays, which are the favorite days for automobiling.
3. In case horse is young and will not pass auto on the road, auto will wait until the horse grows old enough to do so.
4. Members of the Association finding machines broken down on the road will report the nearest blacksmith shop destroyed by fire.
5. In case auto is seen going more than 10 miles an hour, informants shall drive 20 miles an hour to the nearest officer.
6. Members guilty of leniency toward autos driven by ladies must put on skirts and do housework for one week at the home of each other member.
7. In case any member's geese are decoyed away by the honk of an automobile, the owner shall begin raising ducks.
8. Members conniving at automobile use of the country roads will be boiled in gasoline.
9. Members accused of cutting tires shall plead the unwritten law.
10. When the owner of the machine is smaller than the member of the Association, in the event of an altercation it shall be the duty of the farmer to punch the head of the former.

WHY TEDDY FAVORS TAFT.

Written for the Post-Dispatch.

By Clark McAdams.

IT IS the will of Ted that Bill should next be President,
And royal wrath obstructs the path of any that dissent—
For Ted is mighty fond of Bill, and Bill is fond of Ted,
And being fond has forged a bond between them, it is said,
Till they two love to bill and coo as lovers newly wed.

As lovers, too, they love to do a quarrel now and then
Befitting strength and love at length between two master men—
They often sit o' nights and pit their wits in anger hot,
And Ted stands right up close to Bill and tells him what is what,
And Bill stands right up close to Ted and talks to him a lot.

And Ted forthwith says man of pith is William Howard Taft,
And better than be such a man with Ted there is no graft—
For Ted was bred of fighting stock, and when his hungry bent
Goes eating Bill they have a mill of such harmful intent,
That Ted says, "Bill, come let me up—I'll make you President."

No mollycoddle wan is Bill, at fear's command and beck,
But he's a man with bristles on the hind side of his neck—
For often when they two have clinched in wrath and argument,
And Ted's on top, Bill kicks so hard till all his strength is spent,
That Ted says, "Bill, doggone your skin, I'll make you President."

A Spiritual Suggestion for Today.

BY GEORGE ELIOT.

THE Lord knoweth them that are His; but we—we are left to judge by uncertain signs, that so we may learn to exercise hope and faith toward one another.

ANCIENT EGYPTIAN MEDICINE

From Records of the Past for March.

THERE is much evidence in inscriptions and manuscripts that the ancient Egyptians practiced medicine and surgery extensively. Probably their practice was based on little knowledge of anatomy. Each physician treated only one or two diseases. The sick were exposed in public places so that others who had suffered similarly might tell them of helpful remedies. Diseases of the eye were best understood and received both medical and surgical treatment. The most important medical manuscript found in Egypt is the Papyrus Ebers, written 3000 B. C., and discovered in Memphis. Disease, according to the Egyptians, was due to the anger of some deity, the result of the triumph of evil in its struggle with good—an idea which is still very general throughout Africa and Asia, and which at some time has been prevalent in modified forms, in almost every race.

Wives and Fortune Tellers.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

In reply to A. A. D. letter, concerning fortune telling, allow me to state that fortune tellers are not the cause of so many divorce cases. If women were treated right by their husbands the fortune tellers would be idle. As it is, the poor creatures are often so mistreated they seek a fortune teller to find, if possible, a remedy.

EXPERIENCED.

A New Definition.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

Reading in your paper of the reward offered for the definition of a "mollycoddle," I say that a "mollycoddle" is a person who objects to children, skating on sidewalks. Some of the happiest days of my life have been spent skating on the sidewalks on my roller skates, one pair of which I got as a winner of your contest in 1904. Nothing but a "mollycoddle" would want to deprive city children of their only place to exercise and grow strong.

E. D.

Spreading Happiness.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

I have been thinking of the story told by the Salvation Army girl about the struggle and hopelessness of the woman who, by washing, supported numerous children and a feeble husband. The husband and father had always been kind and good, but now, an invalid, he had not been able to work for three years. The Salvation Army girl came upon the poor woman just as she was ready to throw her burden upon society. And thinking, I have come to this suggestion. If every woman with money and leisure should take up even a single family for her gentle ministration, visit it once or twice a week, discover with her woman's unerring instinct the pressing need and relieve it, and pour into the heart of wife or mother her own woman's sympathy and tenderness, she would catch a new, a keener and more exquisite pleasure than she ever got from fashion or amusement. If a thousand such women were to practice this sweet ministration in this city today, there would be tonight two thousand happier hearts and homes than there were last night.

STARZ-AN-BARZ.

Housekeepers and Bachelors.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

I cannot understand why some people are so anxious to have bachelors taxed. I am sure it is far better to remain single and be contented than to be married and perhaps be unhappy. Besides, is it any wonder men prefer being bachelors when so many divorce cases appear daily in the papers? On the other hand, if every lady were able to show a certificate on good housekeeping, there wouldn't be quite as many bachelors.

SHERLOCK.

Spitting in Street Cars.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

Why do not the conductors of the Meramec Highlands and Maplewood cars insist upon all passengers obeying the rule not to spit in the cars? You cannot enter one of these cars without being disgusted by the evidence that the rule has been ignored. The conductors appear to be afraid to tell the men to behave themselves. I was on a car recently, in the afternoon, and the men nearly all spat continually. The conductor said nothing, but as soon as the crowd had got off, he swept the car out while it was in motion, and while ladies still occupied it. What is the use of all our health rules if such things are permitted.

A LADY.

Aid for Animals.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

I think it is a very fine suggestion for the ministers of the churches to preach one Sunday each year regarding cruelty to animals and let the collections go to the Humane Society. Most of our people are blind to the way the poor animals are treated.

Y. D. CITIZEN.

COL. TODHUNTER

He Stands Prepared to Save the Local Democratic Party if the Party Itself Is Willing.

Reported for the Post-Dispatch

By Ripley D. Saunders.

"WELL, suh," remarked Col. Thurs. T. Todhunter, earnestly, "in spite of the fact that the local Democratic managers treated me pretty doggoned shabby in the last campaign, shutting me off just as I was cocked and primed for the greatest oratorical efforts of my life, suh. I nevertheless propose to take a hand in the fight now beginning and show 'em that Col. Thurs. T. Todhunter's sense of duty to his party rises superior to the dadblamed spitework of their petty jealousy, suh.

"You doubtless remember, suh, when they sat down on me so hard that it knocked the wind out of me and made a 'mute, inglorious Milton,' as the poet says, suh, of a man who was all ready to sweep Missouri for 'em—that man being Col. Thurs. T. Todhunter himself, suh—I warned 'em then and there of the folly and peril of muzzling the ox that treads out the corn, suh. Well, dog my cats if they ain't had cause to see that I was right—and I reckon when I again offer my services on the stump, suh, they won't be in such a dadfrazzled hurry to make me feel like a boy who offers to carry water to a circus elephant, suh, and is rewarded for his zeal by beinb h'isted off the scene by the slack of his breeches, suh.

"And I make the tender of my voice in this campaign right here and now, suh. This great inland metropolis of the Mississippi Valley and future great metropolis of the North American Continent is in danger, suh. The despot's heel is on her shore, suh—the Big Cinch and the old grab-it-allgang of the Republican party is reaching out to get control of her Municipal Assembly, suh—and if they get it they'll make 80-cent gas and the regulation of street-car fares and that $11,000,000 for municipal improvements look like a last year's bird's nest as far as any benefit to St. Louis is concerned, suh. I tell you, suh, it's a mighty serious situation—and in looking over the field of battle I can see right this minute that if the white-plumed helmet of Navarre, as the poet says, suh, ain't foremost in the fight on the Democratic side, we're going to get such a lickin' that there won't be enough left of us to make a decent funeral, suh.

"It's all ready to wave over the brow of Col. Thurs. T. Todhunter in the forefront of the conflict, suh, if the Democratic managers of this campaign give the word for it to wave, suh—and it'll wave for victory if it waves at all, suh. But I don't want no dadblamed foolishness in the premises, suh—I call upon the Democratic management of this here campaign to say right now whether or not the voice of Col. Thurs. T. Todhunter shall be heard in the land, suh. The plain issue is this, suh—Shall it be victory with Todhunter, or defeat without?—and I leave the momentous decision in the hands of my party's management, suh."

ANXIOUS.—Under the Illinois criminal laws, the Governor has a right to pardon a person convicted of crime, independent of any action by the Board of Pardons, if he sees fit to do so. The Board of Pardons has the right to parole convicts, or can recommend their pardon. The action of the Governor is the highest power on that question.

P. W. N.—A two-cycle gasoline engine takes a charge every revolution of the fly wheels. A four-cycle gasoline engine takes a charge every alternate revolution of the fly wheels. Each stroke of the piston is considered a cycle. The four-cycle engine is considered more up-to-date, the earlier types being inclined towards the two-cycle principle.

J. B.—Under the Illinois law, the court in which the divorce case is tried makes an equitable division of the property between the husband and wife. Where the wife brings suit for divorce against her husband on the ground of desertion, it is not probable that the Court would allow her all the property and alimony in addition. The settlement of alimony and property question lies in the discretion of the Court.

A. B. C.—Before a garnishment can be instituted in Illinois a judgment must first be rendered and an execution must be issued on the judgment. Under the Illinois practice attachments are sometimes used to take the place of garnishments, as an attachment can be issued without a judgment being obtained in advance, by the giving of a bond to pay damages if the attachment is quashed. In an attachment it is necessary to prove some fraud on the part of the debtor to delay his creditors. The usual costs in an attachment proceeding are about $7.50, and in a garnishment it is slightly more.

1/2 MINUTES WITH GREAT MEN

ABERNETHY ON TOLERATION.

IF the peculiarities of our feelings and faculties be the effect of variety of excitement through a diversity of organization it should tend to produce in us mutual forbearance and toleration. We should perceive how nearly impossible it is that persons should feel and think exactly alike upon any subject. We should not arrogantly pride ourselves upon our virtues and knowledge, nor condemn the errors and weakness of others, since they may depend upon causes which we can neither produce nor easily counteract. No one, judging from his own feelings and powers, can be aware of the kind or degree of temptation or terror, or the seeming incapacity to resist them which may induce others to deviate.

The Foolish Life — By R. W. Taylor

Backing His Theory.

From the Cleveland Plain Dealer.

"Do you still believe in inherited weakness?"

"Yes."

"How do you account for the fact that little Mary Bingler cries so easy and so often?"

Teacher—Why must we always be kind to the poor, Ethel?

Ethel (slightly mixed)—Because among the sundry and manifold changes of this wicked world we don't know how soon they may become rich.

Watches of the Night

What is in the Brahmin's books that is in the Brahmin's heart.
Neither you nor I knew there was so much evil in the world. —Hindu Proverb.

THIS began in a practical joke, but it has gone far enough now and is getting serious.

Platte, the Subaltern, being poor, had a Waterbury watch and a plain leather guard.

The Colonel had a Waterbury watch also, and for guard, the lip-strap of a curb chain. Lip straps make the best watch guards. They are strong and short. Between a lip strap and an ordinary leather guard there is no great difference; between one Waterbury watch and another, none at all. Every one in the station knew the Colonel's lip strap. He was not a horsey man, but he liked people to believe he had been one once; and he wove fantastic stories of the hunting bridle to which this particular lip strap had belonged. Otherwise he was painfully religious.

Platte and the Colonel were dressing at the club—both late for their engagements and both in a hurry. That was Kismet. The two watches were on a shelf below the looking glass—guards hanging down. That was carelessness. Platte changed first, snatched a watch, looked in the glass, settled his tie and went. Forty seconds later the Colonel did exactly the same thing, each man taking the other's watch.

You may have noticed that many religious people are deeply suspicious. They seem—for purely religious purposes, of course—to know more about iniquity than the Unregenerate. Perhaps they were especially bad before they became converted! At any rate, in the imputation of things evil, and in putting the worst construction on things innocent, a certain type of good people may be trusted to surpass all others. The Colonel and wife were of that type. But the Colonel's wife was the worst. She manufactured the Station scandal, and—talked to her ayah! Nothing more need be said. The Colonel's Wife broke up the Laplaces' home. The Colonel's Wife stopped the Ferris-Haughtrey engagement. The Colonel's Wife induced young Buxton to keep his wife down in the Plains through the first year of the marriage. Whereby little Mrs. Buxton died, and the baby with her. These things will be remembered against the Colonel's Wife so long as there is a regiment in the country.

But to come back to the Colonel and Platte. They went their several ways from the dressing-room. The Colonel dined with two chaplains, while Platte went to a bachelor party, and whist to follow.

Mark how things happen! If Platte's sais had put the new saddle-pad on the mare, the butts of the territs would not have worked through the worn leather and the old pad into the mare's withers, when she was coming home at 2 o'clock in the morning. She would not have reared, bolted, fallen into a ditch, upset the cart and sent Platte flying over an aloe-hedge onto Mrs. Larkyn's well-kept lawn; and this tale would never have been written. But the mare did all these things, and while Platte was rolling over and over on the turf, like a shot rabbit, the watch and guard flew from his waistcoat—as an infantry major's sword hops out of the scabbard when they are firing a feu de joie—and rolled and rolled in the moonlight, till it stopped under a window.

Platte stuffed his handkerchief under the pad, put the cart straight, and went home.

Mark again how Kismet works! This would not happen once in a hundred years. Toward the end of his dinner with the two chaplains, the Colonel let out his waistcoat and leaned over the table to look at some Mission Reports. The bar of the watch-guard worked through the buttonhole, and the watch—Platte's watch—slid quietly onto the carpet. Where the bearer found it next morning and kept it!

Then the Colonel went home to the wife of his bosom; but the driver of the carriage was drunk and lost his way. So the Colonel returned at an unseemly hour and his excuses were not accepted. If the Colonel's wife had been an ordinary "vessel of wrath appointed for destruction," she would have known that when a man stays away on purpose his excuse is always sound and original. The very baldness of the Colonel's explanation proved its truth.

See once more the workings of Kismet! The Colonel's watch, which came with Platte hurriedly onto Mrs. Larkyn's lawn, chose to stop just under Mrs. Larkyn's window, where she saw it early in the morning, recognized it and picked it up. She had heard the crash of Platte's cart at 2 o'clock that morning, and his voice calling the mare names. She knew Platte and liked him. That day she showed him the watch and heard his story. He put his head on one side, winked and said: "How disgusting! Shocking old man! With his religious training, too! I should send the watch to the Colonel's Wife and ask for explanations."

Mrs. Larkyn thought for a minute of the Laplaces—whom she had known when Laplace and his wife believed in each other—and answered: "I will send it. I think it will do her good. But remember, we must never tell her the truth."

Platte guessed that his own watch was in the Colonel's possession, and thought that the return of the lip-strapped Waterbury with a soothing note from Mrs. Larkyn would merely create a small trouble for a few minutes. Mrs. Larkyn knew better. She knew that any poison dropped would find good holding-ground in the heart of the Colonel's Wife.

The packet and a note containing a few remarks on the Colonel's calling hours were sent over to the Colonel's Wife, who wept in her own room and took counsel with herself.

If there was one woman under heaven whom the Colonel's wife hated with holy fervor it was Mrs. Larkyn. Mrs. Larkyn was a frivolous lady, and called the Colonel's Wife "old cat." The Colonel's Wife said that somebody in Revelation was remarkably like Mrs. Larkyn. She mentioned other Scripture people as well. From the Old Testament. (But the Colonel's Wife was the only person who cared or dared to say anything against Mrs. Larkyn. Every one else accepted her as an amusing, honest little body.) Wherefore, to believe that her husband had been shedding watches under that "thing's" window at ungodly hours, coupled with the fact of his late arrival on the previous night, was——

At this point she rose up and sought her husband. He denied everything except the ownership of the watch. She besought him, for his soul's sake, to speak the truth. He denied afresh, with two bads words. Then a stony silence held the Colonel's Wife, while a man could draw his breath five times.

The speech that followed is no affair of mine or yours. It was made up of wifely and womanly jealousy; knowledge of old age and sunk cheeks; deep mistrust born of the text that says even little babies' hearts are as bad as they make them; rancorous hatred of Mrs. Larkyn, and the tenets of the creed of the Colonel's Wife's upbringing.

Over and above all was the damning lip-strapped Waterbury, ticking away in the palm of her shaking, withered hand. At that hour, I think, the Colonel's Wife realized a little of the restless suspicion she had injected into old Laplace's mind, a little of poor Miss Haughtrey's misery, and some of the canker that ate into Buxton's heart as he watched his wife dying before his eyes. The Colonel stammered and tried to explain. Then he remembered that his watch had disappeared; and the mystery grew greater. The Colonel's Wife talked and prayed by turns till she was tired, and went away to devise means for "chastening the stubborn heart of her husband."

You see, being deeply impressed with the doctrine of Original Sin, she could not believe in the face of appearances. She knew too much, and jumped to the wildest conclusions.

But it was good for her. It spoilt her enjoyment over the affair of the Laplaces. She had lost her faith in the Colonel, and—here the creed-suspicion came in—he might, she argued, have erred many times before a merciful Providence, at the hands of so unworthy an instrument as Mrs. Larkyn, had established his guilt. He was a bad, wicked, gray-haired profligate. This may sound too sudden a revulsion for a long-wedded wife; but it is a venerable fact that, if a man or woman makes a practice of, and takes a delight in, believing and spreading evil of people indifferent to him or her, he or she will end in believing evil of folk very near and dear. You may think, also, that the mere incident of the watch was too small and trivial to raise this misunderstanding. It is another aged fact that, in life as well as racing, all the worst accidents happen at little ditches and cut-down fences. In the same way, you sometimes see a woman who would have made a Joan of Arc in another century and climate thrashing herself to pieces over all the mean worry of housekeeping. But that is another story.

Her belief only made the Colonel's Wife more wretched, because it insisted so strongly on the villainy of men. Remembering what she had done, it was pleasant to watch her unhappiness, and the penny-farthing attempts she made to hide it from the station. But the station knew and laughed heartlessly; for they had heard the story of the watch, with much dramatic gesture, from Mrs. Larkyn's lips.

Once or twice Platte said to Mrs. Larkyn, seeing that the Colonel had not cleared himself: "This thing has gone far enough. I move we tell the Colonel's Wife how it happened." Mrs. Larkyn shut her lips and shook her head and vowed that the Colonel's Wife must bear her punishment as best she could. Now Mrs. Larkyn was a frivolous woman, in whom none would have suspected deep hate. So Platte took no action and came to believe gradually, from the Colonel's silence, that the Colonel must have "run off the line" somewhere that night, and, therefore, preferred to stand sentence on the lesser count of rambling into other people's compounds out of calling hours. Platte forgot about the watch business after a while, and moved down country with his regiment. Mrs. Larkyn went home when her husband's tour of Indian service expired. She never forgot.

But Platte was quite right when he said that the joke had gone too far. The mistrust and the tragedy of it—which we outsiders cannot see and do not believe in—are killing the Colonel's Wife and are making the Colonel wretched. If either of them read this story they can depend uopn its being a fairly true account of the case and can "kiss and make friends."

Shakspeare alludes to the pleasure of watching an engineer being shelled by his own battery. Now this shows that poets should not write about what they do not understand. Anyone could have told him that sappers and gunners are perfectly different branches of the service. But if you correct the sentence and substitute gunner for sapper the moral comes just the same.

HOW TO BECOME BEAUTIFUL

Written for the Post-Dispatch
By Margaret Hubbard Ayer

"MARCH HAIR."

THE dust that blows about in the month of March is as inimical to the beauty of a woman's hair as the hot sun of July mingled with the waves of the salt sea. But wher eas we all look forward to scalp treatment in the autumn after our summer holidays, few people, either men or women, take the precaution to shield or protect the hair or to cleanse it from the dust of March winds.

An old book published in 1634 on the subject of hair, and called "The Woman's Book," has some very quaint old recipes in it, and it seems that even in those days the health and beauty writers were endeavoring to make their readers wash the hair once in 10 days, and, as this writer says, "scoure the head cleane." This writer recommends good lye for the purpose. Probably our ancestors' hair was stronger than ours is, for good lye applied every 10 days to the scalp would soon leave him with a shiny, billiard-ball pate. However, the "every 10-day scour" isn't a bad idea, particularly in March.

Besides that, a daily brushing and ventilating will tend to keep the hair glossy and to give the new growth which always appears in the spring a good start. I have noticed that several women who are trying to improve their scant locks are going about the house with loose hair, at least during the morning.

This does not look as untidy as you would expect, for the front and side hair is tied back with a big bow of ribbon on the top of the head, in the manner of children in fancy pictures. This keeps the hair out of the face and is more becoming. It relieves the hair for the time being from the torture of hairpins. Probably as much hair is broken off or pulled out by the use of too many or rough-split hairpins as by the use of curling tongs.

Another protection for the hair is the ventilated night-cap. Many women braid their hair so tightly at night that it is a wonder it is not all out by morning. With a night-cap, the hair is simply rolled up on the head and kept in place by a net cap, or a crocheted one made with large, loose meshes. The night-cap is dainty and becoming. It is a help where one has been accustomed either to braid the hair too tightly at night or to pin it up with hairpins. However, the hair once arranged on the forehead is held in that position all night and is encouraged to grow that way. With a night-cap for protection and warm covering, there can be no possible excuse for keeping the windows closed at night.

MADAME YALE'S BEAUTY CULTURE LECTURE

A Matinee for Women and Girls.

Madame Yale cordially invites the ladies of St. Louis to attend her Beauty Culture Matinee at the Century Theater

Monday, April 1st
At 2:30 P. M.

As an authority on Woman's Beauty and Physical Culture Mme. Yale stands alone in her greatness. Her own physical perfections portray in tones more convincing than words the quality of her remedies and methods—perfect in face, figure and general mannerism, she is an inspiring picture for women to imitate and profit by her example and teachings.

The Yale System

provides for the removal of all blemishes and defects to face or figure that mar beauty. If a woman is too stout or too thin Mme. Yale has exercises and methods for bringing about the desired change. She will tell in her lecture how women and girls may increase in beauty and become physically perfect. In justice to themselves all women should learn the scientific logic of the famous Yale system, the only successful means known of transforming human ugliness into youthful, lasting beauty.

Tickets for Mme. Yale's Lecture good for reserved seats may be had free of charge by applying for them at the Toilet Goods Department of the Wm. Barr Dry Goods Co. The best seats, however, are given those who make a purchase of Madame Yale's Remedies at the time of applying for tickets, amounting to 75 cents or more. In order to obtain choice seats, tickets should be secured early in advance of Lecture. Tickets are now ready.

LEADING UP TO IT.

From the Chicago Tribune.

"BEG pardon, sir," said the man in the suit of faded black, but are you carrying all the life insurance you want?"

"Yes, sir," answered the man at the desk, "I am."

"Could I interest you in a morocco-bound edition of the works of William Makepeace Thackeray?"

"You could not."

"Don't you need a germ-proof filter at your house?"

"I do not."

"Would you invest in a good second-hand typewriter if you could get it cheap?"

"I have no use for a typewriter."

"Just so. Would an offer to supply you with first-class imported Havana cigars at $10 a hundred appeal to you?"

"Not a cent's worth."

"How would a proposition to sell you a Century Dictionary, slightly soiled, for only $40 strike you?"

"It wouldn't come within 40 miles of hitting me."

"That being the case," said the caller, "would you be willing to buy a 10-cent box of shoe polish just to get rid of me?"

"Great Scott! Yes."

"Thanks. Good day."

THE BEST DRESSED MAN

C. M. S. in Derrick's Trade Report.

OF course the best dressed man in the world is the English gentleman. If you enter the royal inclosure at Newmarket or visit the lawn at Goodwood on the day of a classic race; if you attend a fashionable orchid or horse show when some great personage presides, you will hardly see any one dressed otherwise than perfectly. But take the hurrying passengers in the city, on the street cars, trains or buses, go freely among the men in the street, and you will share the conviction I have arrived at—namely, that the American is in general dressed more stylishly and in better fitting and better cut clothes.

The Deepest Gold Mine.

From the Chicago Journal.

Australia now possesses the deepest gold mine in the world. The shafts at the New Chum Railway at Bendigo, Victoria, have been sunk to a depth of over 4300 feet, and the quartz there tapped has been sampled and crushed, with the result that a yield of gold equal to an ounce per ton has been obtained. The operations in the mine have been tested by Government officials in view of the fact that never before in the world's history has gold been obtained from so low a depth as three-quarters of a mile.

He Couldn't Sell His Goat.

From the Kansas City Star.

A small boy holding a billygoat with a strap attracted the attention of shoppers on Petticoat lane a few days ago.

"Want to sell him?" asked a man.

"Yep, $20 for Billy and the harness," the boy replied. "Works to harness—works anywhere."

"Why do you want to sell him?"

"We're going to California and I can't take Billy along. Dad's going to buy me a Shetland pony out there."

For an hour the boy stood in the heart of Kansas City's shopping district holding the goat. No one offered the $20. When the boy started dejectedly away, he said:

BIG JACK POWELL NOW BIDS GREAT PROMISE IN WINNING GAME AT AUSTIN

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., March 21.

THE White Sox, or at least a contingent of them, arrived in San Antonio yesterday morning. It is needless to say that the train was late and that Comiskey was out of sorts after his long ride from the City of Mexico. He stepped off here with some of the old men and the youngsters who he is trying out and sent the rest on to New Orleans.

Of course this is not the time to judge a ball team. They should have a rest of a day any way after a trip of that sort, but the Chicagoans certainly do not look very good. They are far from being in condition and if appearances go for anything the Browns have it on the Sox right now by a wide margin.

In the afternoon the youngsters, helped out by Altrock, McFarland, Fiene and Fred Owen, tackled the same team which tied the Browns' patched-up band of pitchers last Sunday. Chicago won by the aid of a timely home run in the last inning when it looked like they were beaten surely, two men being out at the time. The final score was 8 to 6.

Chicago made 13 hits and 4 errors, and San Antonio made 6 hits and the same number of errors.

Owen went in to pitch but was in no sort of shape and retired in three innings after two runs had been made off him.

Then it was up to Altrock. The star of the Sox team looked several pounds overweight but he had all of his old speed and the home team could do nothing with him. He staid on the box for three innings and then hung a flag of distress, saying that his arm was sore. After that a Mr. Freeman obliged, and the San Antonio's piled up four more runs in the short time left.

THINGS surely look good for the Browns right now. If the Champions do not whip into shape very quickly the St. Louisans will get off with a flying start, and that would be all there is to it for awhile at least.

I think that Comiskey fully realizes that his team is not just up to the condition standard, although he declares that everything is fine and dandy and that he does not fear the Browns or any other team in either League.

"We had some great workouts in Mexico," said he, "and the boys didn't mind the high altitude a bit. We are in the best possible shape for this time of the year and will be a lot better when the season opens.

"Everywhere I hear that McAleer has finally got the Browns working in good shape and that he has a wonderful team. I'm glad to hear it, you may be sure. I don't see any chance of the White Sox being beaten, but if they should, I'd rather have it handed to us by St. Louis than any other team in the business. You know a great deal of my baseball knowledge was picked up right in St. Louis."

THE reason Comiskey stopped off in San Antonio instead of going on to New Orleans with the main body of the club was due to the fact that Fred Owen has a little appointment in court as a result of his getting into a saloon fight and drawing a gun the last time the team passed through here. That matter will be settled today and in all probability the pitcher will be handed a big fine, for Texas is trying to stamp out the gun-carrying habit.

The Sox will get away this afternoon, but before they go the New York Giants will get in from Los Angeles. The New Yorkers will get in a much-needed two-days' rest before tackling the Browns here Saturday and Sunday. The last week the team spent in the California city the thermometer was down below freezing most of the time and this warm weather will just strike them right.

AND after all the Giants may not get a crack at one of the Browns' young pitchers, and have an easy time of it in the games here. While Chicago was having the time of its life beating the San Antonios yesterday afternoon, the Browns lined up against Austin again over in that city and to the surprise of everyone, McAleer sent Jack Powell in to work for a few innings.

Inning after inning went by and Powell was not withdrawn for rest and he stuck out the whole game, and the Browns won out by a score of 3 to 2.

"Powell is better than he ever was in his life," said McAleer to me over the telephone last night. "His arm showed no bad effects after the game and if it is perfectly good today, I will probably let him have a crack at New York, if McGraw sends in Mathewson against us."

Following is the score of yesterday's game between the Browns and Austin:

McCLOSKEY NEEDS BATTING.

HOUSTON, Tex., March 21.

McCLOSKEY pulled off a full-fledged game yesterday, in which the Cardinals beat the colts 6 to 0.

The game was fast and snappy, and what was best of all, it showed a marked improvement in the batting of the team.

Marshall and Beckley got into the limelight by lacing out two-baggers when the bases were populated, and several of the other batters hit the ball for extra sacks.

While the Colts did good batting, they were unfortunate in being unable to hit the ball at opportune times, a feature of the veterans' batting. None of the players did any work that was of special merit, and several errors were made, though that is but part of the game.

The boys were gotten out early yesterday morning for a bit of work on the field, which left them in good shape for the afternoon game. Mack is making good his promise to correct the weakness of the batting, and the showing yesterday was especially gratifying along that line. Mack intends to continue the practice in the stick work till the men learn to soak the pill on the nose with more frequency.

Karger and Brown did the pitching for the Veterans, and the work of each was entirely satisfactory. Karger added to his good work in the pit by hitting the ball for a couple of sacks. McGlynn and Beebe did the fireline work for the Colts, and the showing was about a standoff with the balance in favor of the former, if there is any difference. Burch and Bennett were the other batters who hit the ball for extra sacks. The latter has been showing up from the start as a good hitter. McGlynn showed a marked improvement over his work of Sunday, and had much better control of his curves.

Beebe had plenty of speed, but did not curve the ball. Marshall made an excellent showing from behind the bat, and his throws to the bases were true and accurate.

SOCKER ELEVENS MEET TO BENEFIT NEWSBOYS' HOME

Father Dunn announces the line-up of the Knights of Father Mathew and the Knights of Columbus elevens which will oppose each other Easter Sunday afternoon at the C. B. C. campus for the benefit of the Newsboys' Home. The aggregation looms up as the most formidable that has been gathered together for a socker battle in St. Louis, and a struggle between them will be worth going a long ways to see. The complete line-up follows:

K. F. M.	Positions.	K. C.
Sheehan	Goal	Tully
Boucher	Fullback	McKeown
Lynch	Fullback	Flynn
Kloestermann	Halfback	Cahill
Ryan	Halfback	Devanney
Clancey	Halfback	Kennedy
Miller	Forward	Heckmeyer
Donohue	Forward	Reuter
Reed (capt.)	Forward	Lally (capt.)
Sheehan	Forward	McSweeney
Branigan	Forward	Reardon

AN 80-LB. FIGHTER FLINGS A CHALLENGE.

Here's a featherweight with the quill slipped out of the center. Johnny Mannion of Carondelet wants a fight and will fight anybody who can make 80 pounds ringside. Mannion says he is in fine condition at that weight.

Somewhere it is said, "out of the mouths of babes," but it is not known that this referred to challenges for prize fights. This would make an interesting bout could it be arranged. Any fighter in the infant division can make arrangements for a battle with Mannion by addressing the sporting editor of the Post-Dispatch or Carol Cain, Mannion's manager.

LESS CATARRH.

A well-known specialist is authority that catarrh of all kind is easily relieved and often prevented during an entire season by taking a few doses of the following simple mixture:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces.

The dose is a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime. A well-known local druggist elicits the information that these ingredients can be obtained at any good pharmacy, and are all of vegetable extraction, and harmless to use, and are mixed by shaking well in a bottle. Victims of this foul and dangerous malady should not hesitate to make this prescription up and try, as it comes highly recommended, and doesn't cost much to prepare.

WEIRD HANDICAP IN INDOOR MEET

Visiting Champions Are Tied Down in Favor of Local Contenders.

OVER 400 IN ENTRIES

The handicapping of champions in the entries for the St. Louis U. meet, to take place at the Jai Alai Building Thursday evening, is weird and uncanny. By some the heavyweights of distances attached to visiting record-holders are regarded as almost prohibitive. Eddie Cochems is determined to give the St. Louis U. athletes every opportunity to defeat their more famous opponents, and the scratch men will have to cut, baste and stitch their work to the finest edge to bring them at all in the running at the finish. Four hundred athletes will compete in the various events, and this is the largest entry list of finished athletes ever prepared for an indoor track meet in St. Louis. A record-breaking attendance is anticipated and not without reason, for tonight's card will be one of the most interesting ever furnished the lovers of athletic games.

The St. Louis University and Central Y. M. C. A. lead the 21 organizations to enter in the number of entrants, and the Knights of Columbus come into this, their first meet, with a large field. The M. A. C. has fewer men entered, but the cream has been skimmed off at the big athletic club and the bunch to face the starters tonight will be the best the Cherry Diamond can put forward.

In the Sprints.

Forline of the Y. M. C. A., Dick Murray, W. A. Warner, Frank Mason and Fullerton look good in the sprints. The handicaps given Archie Hahn and J. D. Lightbody in the events in which they are entered are such as to make them exert every fiber of endeavor to win.

Who will win the point trophy honors?

This is one question that cannot be answered, it appears to lay between St. Louis U. and Central Y. M. C. A. The varsity has the greatest number of entries, but there are two or three events in which the association appears to come strong, notably the high jump and pole vault. It will be one great contest of skill and endurance in which an opportunity will be given to see all of the best St. Louis athletes working to the utmost to win.

Tonight's Lists.

Following are the events in their order with the handicaps:

A. B. C. Strikes

Milwaukee men with badges a yard long were busy about the tournament building all day yesterday campaigning for Abe Langtry for secretary. There were many times during the day when Milwaukee men bumped into Secretary Sweeney with the statement that if Langtry was not elected they hoped Sweeney would be. D. J. returned the compliment.

L. Gazzolo and W. C. Sherwood, the Toledo (O.) pair, bowling in the doubles yesterday, certainly tried hard enough. Gazzolo had towels, alcohol and much other junk when he came on the alleys. Both men started off with two straight strikes and for a time did great work. Luck broke against them, however, and in spite of their "rooting" they were able to total but 1055.

That Cincinnati Woerleins bunch are all whoppers. Five of them lined up on adjoining alleys yesterday afternoon in the individual series and to the training eye of Boxer Eddie Randall the south side of the building was seen to sink exactly three inches.

Some of the bowlers have a lot of fun in the afternoon. The band gives them an exhilarating feeling it seems and when they make a strike or two they go through all kinds of funny stunts because there is hardly a corporal's guard of spectators present in the afternoon.

Martin Kern, former champion, reminds one of Jeffries. It is very seldom indeed that the broad-shouldered Teuton with his big Fedora can not be singled out standing explaining how it was in the days gone by.

Miss Birdie Kern, national woman's champion, has a match on her hands. Mrs. C. W. Hill of Cleveland, announced her willingness some time ago to bowl against Miss Kern. Mrs. Hill arrived and arrangements are now being made for a special match between the pair on March 28. They will also compete in the women's championship tournament which will open immediately after the men's tournament ends.

WANTED—TWO (2) or three (3) first-class all-around ball players in the 16 and 17-year-old class. Address Dukes Beneke, 1216 Olive street, city.

Old Lave Cross of the Nationals is making a queer reputation for himself on the spring training trip. Lave is the first player to the grounds, the last to leave and is the first dressed and back to the hotel.

A bunch of bowlers were discussing the alleys yesterday. One declared that the alleys were the fastest that he had ever run against. At first they puzzled him because of the fact a fast ball would take but little English. As soon as he moderated his speed however, he found that he was able to make better scores than ever before because of the perfect accuracy of the alleys.

SCROGGS WINS THE TITLE OF DIXIE.

BALTIMORE, March 21.—Harry Scroggs won the title of featherweight champion of the South from Joe Tipman last night before the Nonpareil Athletic Club. The contest was scheduled, for Tipman was disqualified by the referee in the fourth round. The contest was a rough and tumble affair from the start and Scroggs outfought his opponent from the first tap of the bell.

There's only one cure for this Sweeney brand of insomnia. Elect that sleepless, perpetual motion machine, secretary of the American Bowling Congress. Is he a worker? Did'j'ever see him when the devil had a chance to give him a job? Guess not!

ANNOUNCEMENT IS MADE OF DELMAR MEETING AT PARK

Announcement of the St. Louis Racing Association to the effect that races will be run at Delmar Park from April 15 to June 15, with or without betting. Such betting as is allowed legally will be had. The announcement is made by Capt. C. A. Tilles.

It may be possible to "lay a bet" on the ponies and then again it may not. Capt. Tilles says there are some peculiar phases of the law to consider. It is almost certain that attempts will be made to place bets by wire and the most interesting sport event during the latter part of April will be the outcome of the trials made at the betting game.

BALDWIN DEFEATS FREDDIE COLE IN FAST TEN ROUNDS

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 21.—Matty Baldwin of New York picked up some easy money here last night by defeating Freddie Cole of Indianapolis in 10 rounds, before the Indianapolis Athletic Club. Cole has vanquished several good prospective champions during the past year, and has been touted as one of the best boys of his weight, 126 pounds.

Against Baldwin, however, he had no chance, although he worked hard to land him with his right, which won for him in other encounters. The difference was that Baldwin was a good two-handed fighter, and that Cole was there with only one.

Baldwin was the aggressor right from the jump. He started the fireworks in the first round and kept walloping Cole with rights and lefts until the latter was bewildered. Baldwin fought him to a standstill in the clinches and at long range. In the fourth he jabbed a straight right into Cole's stomach that doubled him up like a jack knife. In every round thereafter Baldwin beat a fierce tattoo on the ribs and stomach. He smashed Cole's face until it was raw and bleeding. In the seventh Baldwin landed four terrific punches in the face, but Cole was a glutton for punishment. The end began in the eighth, when Cole went to the floor from a hard right on the chin. The bell saved him at the count of nine.

Cole staggered through the ninth, the bell saving him. He made a feeble rally in the tenth, and was almost too groggy to continue when the bell rang. The decision was awarded to Baldwin. The boys fought at 126 pounds. Hugo Kelly and "Indian Joe" Gregg were in Cole's corner.

MATINEE HORSES ARE SHAPING UP

Members of St. Louis Riding and Driving Club Get Ready for Opening.

In a few weeks' time matinee trotting will open at the North St. Louis Riding and Driving Club's Park, and some of the fastest horseflesh developed locally in recent years will be sent in for the opening speed trials.

Wednesday morning "Mellitta Gratton," the young mare who caused the outsiders to sit up and take notice at the Fair Grounds last year, when she won the free-for-all in a field that included such horses as "Little Joe" and made for herself a wark of 2:17¼, was sold to Maurice Block. The mare was owned and brought out by Morris Freund. Mr. Freund believes the mare will do even better than the .17 mark this year.

There will undoubtedly be some fast going in the Sunday afternoon affairs this spring and summer. Tom Taylor believes "Little George" will develop this year. The horse now has a .26 mark.

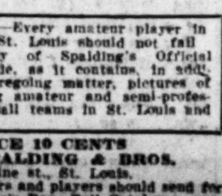

"Minnehaha," owned by William Gadsby, is a mare of great promise in the matinee events. The owner believes she will cut the .24 mark made last year by several seconds this spring. Mr Gadsby has a string of six or seven horses that he will introduce to the Riding and Driving Club enclosure this year. Tom Woods has Goldbond and two or three others. Goldbond's best mark last year was 2:28. "Col. G.," owned by Thomas Parker, is another :28 marker.

"Little Joe," winner of the Mayor Well's cup for the past two successive years and holder of the matinee trotting track record in St. Louis at :19¾, will be in again this spring. "Little Joe" is the property of Ben Baer, and Mr. Baer has another bidder for matinee records in "Mazuma," also checked at :19¾. All of the members of the club are very enthusiastic over the prospects, and the club has been practically reorganized. Oscar Brinkman is president, and an entirely new executive staff has been elected.

Extensive improvements are now being made at the club tracks, and all of the members of the club are looking forward with the hope of seeing matinee racing enjoy a great boom. Keen interest in the young horses is felt, and all the followers of matinee trotting are anxious for the opening Sunday when they will have an opportunity to judge for themselves of the quality of the touted comers.

MAYOR PREPARING APPOINTMENTS

Mid-Term List, to Go In April 16, and Changes Are Expected.

AULL ON ANXIOUS SEAT

New Men Are After Supply Commissioner's and Boiler Inspectors' Jobs.

Mayor Wells told a Post-Dispatch reporter Thursday that he would send his mid-term list of appointments to the Council for confirmation Tuesday evening, April 16, the first meeting night of the new Municipal Assembly to be elected April 2.

Mayor Wells has not announced, so far as the public is aware, any of his selections, and several of the present office holders at the City Hall are on the anxious seat.

It is the general belief among politicians that the Mayor will reappoint most of the present members of the administration, but there are persistent reports about the City Hall that there will be several changes.

No one can be found who will claim authorship of the rumors and no one will say the Mayor has promised reappointment.

Aull on Anxious Seat.

It is known that Robert Aull, Park Commissioner, is on the anxious bench, as reports have spread that someone who stands closer to the Mayor was after his place, and that Aull would not be reappointed.

Friends of Andrew Meyer Jr., City Forester, and former Superintendent of Parks, have asked the Mayor to appoint Meyer to succeed Aull, but Meyer denies that he is a candidate so long as there is a chance for the reappointment of Aull. They are close friends.

Meyer is a leader in the Ninth Ward and a close friend of the Lemps and Senator Kinney, and it is said that Lemp and Kinney, among others, have asked the Mayor to name Meyer Park Commissioner.

It is also said that John F. Lee and other members of the advisory committee controlling the Democratic convention promised to support Meyer for Park Commissioner if the South St. Louis wards agreed not to force 3-cent fare and 80-cent gas into the platform. The South Side leaders agreed to do this if they could get the support for Meyer and name Edward J. O'Neill on the Board of Education ticket.

Some persons say that Supply Commissioner John P. Boyce may not be reappointed, and it is known that others are after his job. Taylor Stith, assistant secretary of the Council, is in line for a cabinet position and his friends are working for his appointment as Supply Commissioner.

New Man for Branch's Job.

Other politicians say a new man may be appointed Inspector of Boilers to succeed Joseph G. Branch. If there should be a change in the office of Street Commissioner it is said that J. C. Travilla, present office superintendent, will be promoted.

There is a report that City Counselor Charles W. Bates will not accept reappointment, although it is said that Mayor Wells wants him to remain and will appoint him if he will consent.

There will be a vacancy in the office of Superintendent of the City Hospital, as Dr. John Young Brown has resigned to take effect April 1. There are more than a dozen applicants for the position, but there is a belief that either Dr. Walter C. G. Kirchner, Assistant Superintendent, or Superintendent Albrecht of the Female Hospital will be selected by the Mayor.

When Mathew Kiely, former chief of police, was removed from office, it was said that Mayor Wells would appoint him Superntendent of the Workhouse in April. There is still a belief that he will be named to succeed Andrew Scully, who is slated to be rolled.

Chief Advisor Whyte.

Joseph Whyte, Harbor and Wharf Commissioner, the Mayor's chief advisor, will be reappointed, it is said, and also Water Commissioner Adkins. It also seems certain that Health Commissioner Bond will be reappointed. Building Commissioner Smith and Sewer Commissioner Fardwell are likewise tipped for reappointment.

Mayor Wells has been kept busy since his return from the Panama with calls from cabinet members who want to be returned to office for four more years. Almost every officeholder directly under the Mayor has called on him during the past week.

It is said that politicians have renewed the fight on the reappointment of Fire Chief Swingley. Chief Swingley is a Republican in politics but because of his qualifications it is thought he will be reappointed.

BOYS BORROWED RIG.

Three Are Now Charged With Horse Stealing.

John and Peter O'Donnell, 16 and 9 years old respectively, half orphans, living with their father at 2121 Division street, and Melville Todd, 14, of 2033 Division street, are locked up in the Newstead Avenue Police Station, charged with horse stealing.

A horse and buggy, the property of the St. Louis Tent and Awning Co., was driven from Fourth and Market streets while the regular driver was absent. The police were notified.

At 9 p. m. Wednesday Patrolman William McDonnell noticed a tired horse going west on Lindell boulevard, near Taylor avenue, hauling a storm buggy in which were three boys.

The patrolman took them to the station. John O'Donnell, the spokesman of the trio, said that they had found the horse wandering about downtown and that they jumped into the buggy with the intention of looking for the owner. They were still looking for the owner, he said, when the policeman stopped them.

J. A. Honea, 1007 Olive street, reported the disappearance of a horse and buggy from Tenth and Olive streets Wednesday afternoon. He told the police he had learned that a man answering the description of one known to him had tried to sell the outfit for $150 at Grand and Washington avenue.

AUTO MANAGER ARRESTED.

Newsboy Run Down by a Coasting Machine.

Newman Samuel, manager of the South Side Automobile Co., was arraigned Thursday in the City Hall Police Court on a charge of careless driving. He was arrested Wednesday night after he had run down in his machine a 10-year-old newsboy, Warren Khorumel of 510 Leonard avenue. The boy was playing with other children in front of 3408 Lindell avenue when the automobile hit him.

Samuel says he was coasting within the speed limit when the boy ran directly in front of the machine. He carried the boy into a drug store and telephoned for a doctor, who had him taken to the Centenary Hospital.

Samuel was taken to the Manchester Avenue Police Station, where bond was furnished by Justice of the Peace O'Hallaron. The case was continued Thursday until March 28.

EXTRA SESSION TO AMEND RACE LAWS

Folk's Call for April 9 Asks Emergency Clause to Prevent Bets.

EIGHT SUBJECTS NAMED

Proclamation Indicates Governor Wants Fellow Servant Enactment.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, March 21.—An amendment to the racetrack law, with an emergency clause, to prevent gambling on horse races by telephone, telegraph or any other manner will be presented when the special session of the Legislature convenes April 9. This date is just a week later than had at first been announced. It is thought that the municipal election in the State being held on April 2 caused Gov. Folk to make the change.

The Governor's recommendation regarding racing is thought to be due to intimations he received that an attempt will be made to resume racing in St. Louis County before the amended anti-racing law introduced by Senator Ely goes into effect, about the middle of June. An emergency clause is all that the Governor considers lacking in this amendment.

The Governor's Call.

The other matters in the Governor's call for a special session have been anticipated in dispatches. As indicated in his proclamation, he may call other matters to the attention of the Legislature, one of which undoubtedly is an amendment to the fellow-servant law, under which coal, lead and zinc mines would come in the same class with railroads and street railways. The proclamation is as follows:

"By virtue of authority in me vested by the Constitution of the State of Missouri, I, Joseph W. Folk, Governor of the State of Missouri, do hereby convene the Forty-fourth General Assembly of the State of Missouri in extra session at the Capitol in Jefferson City, on Tuesday, April 9, 1907, at 12 o'clock noon, for the following purposes:

"1. To enact such legislation as may be necessary to provide for the regulation of the rates of public-utility corporations.

"2. To enact legislation regulating and controlling dramshops.

"3. To provide legislative enactments for the enforcement of the dramshop laws throughout the State.

"4. To provide for the removal or recall of derelict officials.

"5. To enact laws relating to the police systems of cities of this State of 100,000 inhabitants or over.

"6. To provide an enactment with emergency clause for the suppression of racetrack gambling.

"7. To consider any other subject that may be submitted by special message during such session.

"8. To make an appropriation for the expenses of this extra session of the General Assembly."

MAY SELL BONDS AT PRIVATE SALE

Mayor and Comptroller Negotiating Deal for Securities Offered Publicly.

Mayor Wells and Comptroller Player are negotiating with several financial firms for the sale of the $3,000,000 city bonds recently offered and a deal may soon be closed. Comptroller Player thinks the bonds will be sold at an interest rate of 3.65 per cent, although the entire amount may not be sold to one firm.

The bonds are the first to be offered of the $11,200,000 authorized by the voters last June. Of the amount authorized, $670,000 is for the purchase of public parks in congested districts of the city.

CONCERTS IN JEOPARDY.

Tower Grove Park Commission and Musicians Disagree.

Tower Grove Park bids fair to be without its Sunday concerts again this year unless the efforts of property owners and organized business men are successful in bringing about some kind of an agreement between the Park Commissioners and the American Federation of Musicians. The differences that existed between the commissioners and the musicians last year are again to the fore, and as yet no disposition has been shown by either side to recede from the positions.

The Shaw's Garden District Improvement Association is making every effort to have Sunday concerts this year, and to that end has adopted resolutions which have been forwarded to the Tower Grove commissioners and the officials of the Musicians' Union, which summed up says "get together."

Owen Miller, general secretary of the American Federation of Musicians, says that the Tower Grove Park commissioners have been requested simply to treat the musicians as the City of St. Louis does and that whenever this is done the concerts will be renewed.

BATTERY AT JAMESTOWN.

Exposition Authorities Have Invited A's Men.

If permission is granted by Brigadier-General Clark, Light Battery A, National Guard of Missouri, will spend a week at the Jamestown Exposition, beginning Aug. 16. The battery has been invited by the exposition authorities to take part in the military pageant on the grounds.

The present strength of the battery, 75 men, will be increased as soon as possible to 120, in compliance with a recent order of the War Department. This will entitle the battery to another second lieutenant. On an informal ballot Private George Stewart Lang has been chosen for the position. Corp. Fritz R. Von Windegger has been elected to fill a vacancy in the office of second lieutenant. The election was held last Tuesday at the armory, 1221 South Grand avenue.

Tossed Head, Dislocated Neck.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

PITTSBURG, Pa., March 21.—The disdainful maiden who can toss her head ought to take warning by the unique accident that happened this morning to Miss Phillips of Bellwood, about two miles back of Homestead. Miss Phillips, who is 17 years old, was combing her hair, which is said to be the prettiest tresses in the entire section, and as she stood before the mirror she gave her head a toss, the better to get the comb to the back tresses. The toss was so energetic that it dislocated her neck, necessitating her removal to a hospital.

Relieves Women's Troubles

A True Story

Here follows the true story of the sufferings of Mrs. H. C. Larson, a beautiful society lady of Olds, Iowa, who tells how, with the aid of the Cardui Home Treatment, she was able to relieve herself of all her womanly troubles and ailments.

"What I say for Wine of Cardui," she writes, "I say truthfully, and I could say a great deal more for it than I have. Before I had ever heard of Wine of Cardui, I had been a sufferer from female troubles for eight (8) years. My doctor could only relieve me at times. I also received a fall, causing several complications, which added greatly to my suffering.

"The doctors wanted to perform an operation, but I could not stand the thoughts of that, and I finally began to take Wine of Cardui. Since I began I have used a great deal of it, about 15 bottles, but now I am well, and suffer no pain or other female discomfort. All thanks to you and to your wonderful medicine, Cardui, woman's relief and blessing. Whenever anyone says anything to me about female troubles, my reply is always: 'try Wine of Cardui. It did wonders for me and will do the same for you.'" You can get Cardui at your druggist's, in $1 bottles. Try it. It may be just what you need for your troubles.

STANNARD SWEARS RECEIVED NO FAVORS FROM GAS COMPANY

Makes Affidavit Regarding Installation of Daylight Gas Lamp and Declares He Never Was Remunerated for Anything Done By Him as Delegate.

At the request of Samuel B. Stannard, member of the House of Delegates from the Nineteenth Ward, the Post-Dispatch prints the affidavit which follows, giving Mr. Stannard's statement of the matter therein referred to:

State of Missouri, City of St. Louis, ss.:

I, Samuel B. Stannard, being duly sworn, state that I am and have been since April, 1905, a member of the House of Delegates, representing the Nineteenth Ward. That I have faithfully performed all the duties incumbent upon me as such member and that I have never received at the hands of an individual or corporation remuneration for favors as a member of such House of Delegates, or as a consequence of any of my official acts. In reference to the articles appearing in the Post-Dispatch under date of March 20, wherein it is inferred that I solicited and received engraving business favors at the hands of the Laclede Gaslight Co., I state most positively that I never solicited nor received, either directly or indirectly, engraving, printing or any other business or commission from them, the Laclede Gaslight Co., or any other public service corporation.

Referring further to this particular article, mention is made of an arc lamp installed by said Laclede Gaslight Co. in my home at 4210 Grand avenue. To this I submit the following explanation:

In June, 1905, a solicitor of the Laclede Gaslight Co. called upon my wife and explained that they were installing free of cost, in homes of about 2000 citizens, a new style gas lamp, which they hoped to make popular in St. Louis. My wife referred him (the solicitor) to me and I permitted the installation, looking upon this transaction as an elemental business proposition wherein an article is left on trial by an agent with the expectation of creating a demand for it, and with that I dismissed the matter from my mind. The gas consumed by this light was that which came through the one meter in my house and receipted bills for which gas I herewith append, showing the payment of my gas bills from 1904 to date. These bills, as the receipts indicate, were paid, some at the office of the Laclede Gaslight Co., some via American Express Co. at Cramer's drug store, Kossuth and Grand avenues, and some at Ulemeyer's hardware store at Water Tower.

From this it is evident that the maintenance referred to in the letter from the Laclede Gaslight Co. and one of their employes referred only to the installation and proper care of the lamp. My purpose in submitting an explanation in the form of an affidavit is to attach to my statement the element of responsibility. To the voters of the Nineteenth Ward I am willing to stand or fall on the record I have made while a member of the House of Delegates, which record is one of pride to myself and my family.

SAMUEL B. STANNARD.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 20th day of March, 1907.

CLUBMAN NOMINEE FOR SCHOOL BOARD

Augustus L. Abbott, Democrat and Lawyer, on Republican Ticket.

CAMPAIGN IS OPENING

Republican Rallies in Two Wards, Democratic in Three Tonight.

The name of Augustus L. Abbott, Democrat and lawyer, of 5449 Maple avenue, will appear on the Republican ballot as candidate for the school board instead of Edward J. O'Neill, the man put up for the place by the Democratic convention. The Republican City Committee unanimously selected Mr. Abbott, after his consent had been obtained.

O'Neill was rejected by the Republicans on account of his activity in politics. E. M. Grossman and W. Palmer Clarkson, the retiring Democratic members of the board, refused to go on the Republican ticket. The name of Mr. Abbott was suggested to the Republican committee by Prof. Halsey C. Ives, Robert Moore and E. C. Eliot.

The new candidate is a member of the law firm of Abbott & Edwards, and is 49 years old. He was educated at Brown University, and is a graduate of the St. Louis Law School. He is a member of the American, Missouri and St. Louis Bar Associations, the Missouri Historical Society and the Mercantile and Glen Echo Clubs.

James Smith, chairman of the Ward Organization Committee of the Democratic party says Howe's action in attacking O'Neill is made in the hope of taking the attention of the public from the bad nominations on the Republican ticket.

Can't Put Abbott on Ticket.

Secretary Ellspermann of the Election Board says that neither party can now name new men for their tickets unless there is a vacancy created by the withdrawal of some candidate already nominated, as the time for filing new candidates expired last Saturday.

He says the name of Abbott cannot be placed on the ballot unless O'Neill withdraws his name. This has not been done and O'Neill says he does not expect to withdraw.

The Republican committee filled the vacancy for the House of Delegates nomination in the Third Ward by selecting Lewis H. Ehrlich, a furniture dealer, of 1706 North Tenth street. A. H. Gruendler, a hardware merchant, who was nominated by the convention, withdrew.

The Republican campaign will be opened Thursday night at Concordia Turner Hall, Thirteenth and Arsenal streets. Judge Franklin Ferriss, chairman of the advisory committee of 200, will preside. Speeches will be made by Congressmen Bartholdt and Coudrey, Leo Rassieur, John S. Leahy, Selden P. Spencer and Thomas K. Niedringhaus.

Meetings will be held in the Twentieth Ward at 1450 North Garrison avenue and in the Second Ward at Broadway and Benton street, Thursday night. Candidates for the Council and House of Delegates will speak.

Three Democratic Rallies.

The Democrats will have three meetings going Thursday night in the Twenty-seventh, Twenty-sixth and Fourteenth wards. The meeting in the Twenty-sixth will be held at Northwest Turner Hall, 3948 Easton avenue, under the direction of Committeeman Phil Dwyer. George Neville, Thomas L. Anderson, William R. Scullin, E. A. Noonan Jr., William L. Hanley, William A. Todd and James T. Brennan, candidate for the House of Delegates, will be the speakers.

The Twenty-seventh Ward meeting will be held at Bohn's Hall, Marcus and Easton avenues. Vincent McShane, James T. Horan and Edgar R. Smythe, McShane's recent opponents for the nomination for the House of Delegates, will be the principal speakers. James Walsh, Hickman P. Rodgers and others are on the program for addresses.

Arabian Nights Hall, Jefferson and Clark avenues, will be the scene of the Fourteenth Ward meeting. There will be meetings Friday night at Madison Hall, Twenty-second and Madison streets, in the Seventeenth Ward; Plumer's Hall, Thirteenth and Benton streets, in the Eighteenth, and Owen's Hall, 5800 Old Manchester road, in the Twenty-fourth.

The Board of Election Commissioners has refused to enter H. J. Wielms as an independent candidate for the House of Delegates from the Eleventh Ward because he failed to get the required number of signers to his petition.

OFFICE HERE FOR COMMERCE BODY

Commission Wants Western Representatives—Harriman Road Surrenders.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—The Interstate Commerce Commission is considering the advisability and has practically decided to appoint Western representatives, with headquarters at Chicago and St. Louis, for the purpose of insuring co-operation between the railroads and the national Government, wires the Chicago Tribune correspondent. This is in accordance with the plan submitted to the President and the commission by B. F. Yoakum of the Rock Island System. On two occasions when Mr. Yoakum called on the President he urged this scheme as desirable both from the point of view of the shippers and the railroads. He believed that consultation between railroads and representatives of the commission would prevent discriminations and undue preferences, stop violation and evasion of law and lead to the obtaining of reasonable and just freight rates.

Negotiations are in progress between Secretary Garfield and the Union Pacific Railroad Co. for the return to the Government of all coal lands fraudulently and improperly acquired by this system. The Union Pacific has recognized that its title to some of the property is defective and has advised the Secretary of the Interior of its willingness to return all lands which it cannot properly claim, provided the Government would forego prosecution. If litigation were to be instituted it would be years before a settlement could be reached and in the interests of promptness and saving of Government money Secretary Garfield has accepted the proposal of the Union Pacific.

At present and in the past every agent sent by the commission to look into railroad conditions has been, in a sense, a detective. His presence has been resented by the railroads because they have felt that he came to obtain evidence against them and not to give them any assistance. As a result the relations of the railroads and commission have not been always friendly.

With representatives of the commission on the ground familiar with local conditions and able to decide accordingly, it is believed by members of the commission that the friction between the railroads and the people will be minimized. The commission's representative will be able to learn promptly of any discrimination or preference in favor of one shipper as against another and if the railroads fail to comply with his notification to cease this violation of the law the matter can be referred at once to the Interstate Commerce Commission for action. Finally, the commission will be able to get authoritative information in regard to rates and traffic generally, which will be of the greatest assistance to it in formulating policies.

A few months ago the Union Pacific denied most emphatically that any of its coal lands had been improperly obtained. Investigation by Commissioners Prouty and Clark established the fact that thousands of acres of valuable mineral lands had been acquired by the Union Pacific and its subsidiary lines through the most bare-faced fraud.

East St. Louis News

The last lecture in the University Extension series on "The Twentieth Century City," under the auspices of the East St. Louis Teachers' Association, will be given Thursday night in the City Hall Auditorium by Prof. Charles Zueblin of Chicago. His subject fill be "The City of the Future."

The funeral of Julia O'Neil, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry O'Neil, 920 North Fifteenth street, was held Thursday afternoon from the family residence to Mount Carmel Cemetery.

The third annual convention of the St. Clair District Dental Society was held in East St. Louis Wednesday, closing with a banquet at the Elks' Club Wednesday night.

At a meeting of the Catholic Parade Union in St. Patrick's School Hall, M. J. Walsh, president of the union, was presented with a gold-headed umbrella on behalf of the members for his efforts in arranging the details of the St. Patrick's day parade.

The annual election of the Elks' Lodge will be held at the clubrooms Friday night. Reports from the outstanding committees will precede the election of officers.

James Sweeney, who holds the two-mile roller skating championship of the world, and Will Cahan of St. Louis have won the two first preliminary races at the Rex Rink in the championship series. Races will be run each night this week and the winners of the five preliminary races will compete in the final race for the two-mile championship at the Rex Saturday night.

It was reported to the police Wednesday that the home of David Putnam, 1474 Cleveland avenue, had been entered by burglars during the afternoon and a gold watch, two rings, a watch charm, revolver and $40 stolen.

THE POST-DISPATCH'S DAILY RECORD OF MARKETS AND FINANCE

STOCK MARKET OPENS LOWER

Decline Only Fractional, Missouri Pacific an Exception—Tone Good.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, March 21.—It is perfectly evident the stock market is not inclined to make recoveries with leading banking house heads and some of the most prominent railroad executives condemning it. The lower opening this morning, the declines of the past few days to almost the low levels of last week, with the fact that London is ruling higher of late, is cited as evidence of the stock market's position.

Some of the New York commission houses are of the opinion that the attitude of the big banking houses and strong interest is the real evidence of the existence of a feeling that controls stock market operations and that until that feeling or condition is remedied the stock market will not materially alter.

The market made no great losses after the opening and before midday took an upward turn and recovered some of the early losses. At 10 o'clock the most active issues on both sides were fractionally above their openings.

FINANCIAL.

Dow, Jones & Co.: It is stated in authoritative quarters that directors of the Kansas City Southern Railroad will soon begin payments of dividends on preferred stock, of which their issue is $21,000,000. The dividend is 4 per cent, non-cumulative on this issue.

Messrs. George H. Burr & Co., commercial paper brokers, 304-5-9 Security Bldg., report local money: Indorsed bills receivable, 4 to 6 months, 5¾ to 6 per cent; high-grade and single-name paper, 4 to 6 months, 6 per cent; other names, not so well known, 6 to 6½ per cent; call money on good security, 5½ to 6 per cent on first-class security. Market very firm. Demand for money continues good.

Call money on the New York Stock Exchange opened Thursday at 4 per cent.

The Bank of England discount rate remains unchanged and there is talk that the United States can get gold in the European market. In fact, the report was published Thursday that some gold had been engaged in Amsterdam for New York.

The St. Louis bond market is more active, but prices rule firm to easier.

Some money again went out to the country Thursday: interior institutions announcing that spring crop demands are of fair proportions. Rates, however, showed no very decided change during the day, 6 per cent being the ruling figure at all of the leading institutions. The increase in United States Government deposits at this point has been a factor of some interest during the past week.

The break in price of Toledo Home Telephone bonds to 85 and interest is in accordance with the weakness in all securities of independent telephone companies. So far as could be learned Thursday there is absolutely no reason for the decline aside from temporary lack of buying orders. The company is making a very fine record and will probably show a gain in earnings over the previous year.

The dividend on the stock of the Wagner Electric Co., to be paid April 1, is 2 per cent instead of 1¾ per cent, as reported Wednesday. The stock is on an 8 per cent basis this year and was on a 7 per cent basis last year.

Local bank clearings and balances: Clearings for Thursday, $10,636,712; last week, $9,944,828. Balances for today, $1,199,988; last week, $1,136,362. Increase clearings, $691,884; increase balances, $63,626.

The advance of the French bank rate from 3 to 3½ per cent announced Thursday was announced too late to affect the New York stock market opening. To some financial interests the move indicates some activity on the part of American railroads toward further financing in that market. It is seven years since the French bank rate has been changed and the financial centers of the United States are reminded that at least one continental bank rate followed in advance and decline the recent movement of the English bank rate. The English bank governors made the last advance at a special meeting held after the regular Thursday morning meeting, and any development in the way of European or London gold purchases by the United States may precipitate action of the same kind.

Sales to noon, 306,000 shares.

LIVESTOCK.

Receipts—Cattle, 3300; hogs, 7500; sheep, 800; horses and mules, 400.

CATTLE—The day's supply was about evenly divided between the native and southern divisions; a few pretty good native steers were received, but the bulk of the supply consisted of common and fair grades; the Texas supply was late in arriving, but the quarantine receipts included some good Arkansas steers at $4.70, the general market was slow at prices weak to a shade lower.

HOGS—There was a fair run of hogs today, the receipts being about 1000 larger than last Thursday, but 2500 less than the same day last year. The quality was not quite so good as the last few days and the common and trashy lights are selling relatively much lower than a few days ago. The general market was 10 cents lower and trading rather slow.

FRACTIONAL GAIN MADE NEAR CLOSE

After Dull Forenoon Late Demand Improved and Wheat Advanced Slightly.

CORN FRACTION HIGHER

Oats Dull, Wheat Steady, Cash Demand Fair—Receipts Continue Good.

Local wheat, after a very dull forenoon, in which prices were rather weak, advanced suddenly in the late trading and the close was ¼@⅜c higher for the day. Corn closed ¼@⅜c higher, and oats 1-16c lower.

May wheat opened ⅛c lower at 74⅝c, declined to 74⅜@74½c, advanced to 75¼c, and closed at 75⅛c bid. July wheat opened ⅛c lower at 75¼@75⅜c, declined to 75@75⅛c, and advanced steadily in the late trading to 75⅞c, colsing at 75¾@75⅞c sellers.

May corn opened 1-16c higher at 44⅜c, and advanced at the close to 44½@44⅝c bid. July corn opened 1-16c lower at 44⅝c, declined to 44½c, advanced to 45⅛c, and closed at 45c bid.

There were no sales of May oats. At the opening 40⅞c was bid, and the close was 1-16c lower at 41c bid. July oats opened ⅛c lower, at 36⅛c, advanced to 36¼@36⅜c, and closed at 36⅛@36¼c bid.

Liverpool cables closed unchanged to ⅛d lower on spot wheat, and ⅛@¼d lower on the fuures. Paris closed unchanged to ⅜c lower on wheat, and ¼@½c higher on flour. Antwerp wheat closed unchanged. Budapest wheat ¼c higher, and Berlin wheat ⅝c higher.

The local market during the early parts of the session was extremely dull and featureless, with trading light and prices narrow. At the start there was some selling on the bearish report by H. V. Jones, the Government crop expert, who has just returned from the inspection of the wheat fields, the lower cables, bearish domestic situation and large Northwestern receipts. Trading was mostly among the pit scalpers, and under some early liquidation among this crowd prices declined ¼@⅜c. A partial recovery was made early in the day, and during a good part of the session prices were dull and narrow and a slight fraction lower than Wednesday's close. Towards the end of the session business picked up considerably and the very late trading was quite active. Prices, under a good spurt of buying just before the end, caused mainly by the late advance at Chicago, advanced sharply, and the close was at the day's high point and was higher for the day. The cash demand for wheat was rather slow, and the market was dull. There were few changes in the prices of cash wheat. Clearances of wheat and flour for the day were 187,000 bu.

Trading in corn was light. There were practically no offerings early in the day and it was quite late in the session before any sales of May were executed. Corn at Chicago was firm and this helped the tone of the local market, the close here being higher for the day. Liverpool cables closed unchanged to ¼d lower on spot corn and ⅜d to ⅝d lower on the futures. The cash demand for corn was good and the prices were strong. Corn clearances for the day were 554,000 bu.

There was very little interest in the oats market and no sales were made in May option. July was also very quiet and prices on both options were about steady. There was a good cash demand for oats and prices were firm. No oats was cleared from the seaboard today.

H. V. Jones, returned from a trip through Kansas, Oklahoma and Ohio Valley, says: "It is doubtful whether spring ever opened with winter wheat in more perfect condition for the whole area. There is almost no winter killing. Kansas is as perfect as it is possible to be. Oklahoma has perhaps 3 per cent damage in the Southern counties from the wheat louse, not worth mentioning to date. The Ohio Valley gives fine promise with a small loss of acreage from flooding. North of Indianapolis wheat is just coming into the green and by comparison with counties south of Indianapolis should not be judged for two weeks. So far as I could discover in Northern Indiana the drill rows are forming into a good stand. For all the area covered a field of poor stand is a great exception."

The Cincinnati Price Current says that the winter wheat crop is regarded more hopefully where top growth was frozen. Good condition Westward maintained. Full acreage of corn and oats indicated. Packing 445,000 against 385,000 last year.

Argentine estimates for tomorrow are: Wheat, 4,000,000 bu, and corn 40,000 bu. Minneapolis stocks increased 645,000 bu for 5 days. Following are the Northwestern car lots: Minneapolis, 232, against 236 last year. Duluth, 133, against 46 last year. Winnipeg, 46, against 52 last year. Total, 411 against 334 last year.

Primary movement—Receipts: Wheat, 507,650 bu, against 359,136 bu last year. Corn, 588,900 bu, against 220,100 bu last year. Oats, 480,652 bu, against 358,264 bu last year.

Shipments—Wheat: 216,219 bu, against 283,000 bu last year. Corn, 482,738 bu, against 314,000 bu last year. Oats, 414,274 bu, against 610,000 bu last year.

St. Louis receipts and shipments—Receipts: Wheat, 26,000 bu; corn, 200,000 bu; oats, 89,600 bu.

Shipments—Wheat: 71,340 bu; corn, 115,575 bu; oats, 91,300 bu.

FLOUR—Receipts, 7550 barrels; shipments, 8990 barrels. Quote soft winter flour, patents at $3.60@3.80; straight at $3.40@3.50; and extra fancy at $3.20@3.35 in wood; low to medium grades at $2.30@2.60 in jute; hard in jute sacks, patents at $3.40@3.50; straight at $3.20@3.30; clear at $2.65@2.85; low grades at $2.20@2.50; spring wheat at $3.80@4 in bulk.

JAPAN'S PREMIER "BEAU BRUMMELL"

Marquis Saionji Acquired Lofty Mannerisms While Living in Paris.

Marquis Saionji, the Prime Minister of Japan, is said to be the Beau Brummel of that country.

"Nothing is worth learning, according to the private opinion he is said to hold, unless it can be learned in France," says Current Literature.

"Certainly no one was ever so French as the Marquis tries to be. The Prime Minister of Japan does his thinking in French. His manners are French. His sympathies are French. His characteristics are the most excessively French that ever made a personality delightful.

"Of his brilliance there can be no possible doubt whatever. In his sincerity no one has any faith at all. Fifty-eight, extremely rich, aristocratic in principle, he disposes of serious things with an epigram and thinks nothing matters much. He is, to employ the hackneyed phrase that fits him, perfectly lovely. Mrs. Mary Crawford Fraser, who has met him often, vouches in the London Monthly Review for that. So do many ladies. 'A desperate heart-breaker,' says our fair authority.

"For 10 years the handsome Saionji lived with the gilded youth of the French capital. He made himself at home in the Latin Quarter, but he was welcomed in the abodes of those legitimist aristocrats to whom the third republic was an abomination and the second empire a vulgar show. It was then that he acquired his nice mastery of French, his taste for coffee and rolls in bed, his preference for scented cigarettes and his love for Watteau.

STAGE KISSES ARE NOT ALWAYS SO NICE.

Some of Them Even Require Much Self-Sacrifice.

Persons sitting back twelve or fourteen rows from the footlights of the theater may believe that the stage kiss, as it is occasionally presented, is very delicious, and now and then some are envious, no doubt, of the players. But Harriet Quimby, in Leslie's Weekly, says that no one but an actor or an actress can fully appreciate what they mean. She writes:

"The picture,a s presented to the audience, is very pretty, but the vision which looms up before the eyes of the poor player is something like this: A face covered with a coating of cold cream, which has been powdered over with a thick layer of pearl-white or brunette powder, as the case may be.

"On the cheeks are daubs of rouge, which at that close range, in no possible manner suggest, as they do to the audience, the rosy cheeks of a country lassie. Over the eyes is rubbed a little dark-blue powder to make them poetical. The under lids are heavily penciled, and a mark extends a quarter of an inch from the eye at the end. This makes them larger.

"Upon each separate lash is a bead of black cosmetic, which has the effect of making them heavy and long. The cherry lips, which to the audience the hero is eager to press to his own, are to his distorted vision at such close range only a gash of carmine painted into a Cupid's bow.

"The actress sees before her a picture even less attractive, for ten chances to one the hero, in addition to his grease-paint, wears a false mustache, and is also 'smelly' with tobacco. The glare of the footlights tones down this conglomeration of paint, and at a distance the faces are actually pretty, but upon close inspection they resemble nothing more than a very bad oil-painting out of focus. Taken from this viewpoint some of the very impassioned kisses, featured in plays such as 'Zaza,' 'Sapho,' etc., require no little self-sacrifice on the part of the players.

GLASSLESS GOGGLES ARE MADE IN FRANCE.

Glassless goggles for automobiles is the very latest in the novelty line, a French eye specialist having hit upon the idea of eye protection which, it is claimed, will eliminate the disadvantages of the present type. Instead of glass the lenses are made of thin sheets of steel, in each of which are three narrow slits, one being cut horizontally, intersected near the nose by a perpendicular slit, the junction of the two slits forming a slight angle. Below the horizontal slit is another slit, which is cut slant toward the outside of the lense.

BELL HOPES FOR RUIN OF RIVALS

Attorney Says Independent Companies' Operations Like Those of Blackmailers.

THE MERGER IS ENJOINED

Legal Fight On Over Company in Which St. Louisans Have $1,000,000.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, March 21.—"We hope and believe that all the independent telephone companies will follow this one into bankruptcy. Their organization and operation amounts to practical blackmail."

Judge D. Cady Herrick was arguing for the Bell Telephone Co. before Attorney-General Jackson at the latter's New York office when he made the quoted decaration in his clients' behalf.

The subject under discussion was an injunction obtained by the Attorney-General at the request of persons in interest preventing the sale of control of the United States Independent Telephone Co., in which St. Louisans have invested about $1,000,000, to the American Telephone and Telegraph Co. (the Bell), through a trust company in New Jersey.

The Attorney-General took testimony on March 6 to determine whether or not he had a cause of action under the Donnelly anti-trust law to prevent this merger. The United States Independent is a holding company, in control of several concerns which operate in rivalry to the Bell in this and other states. It also controls the Schomberg-Carlson Manufacturing Co., which makes telephone instruments and other equipment, and sells them to independent concerns.

At the previous hearing Mr. Jackson produced testimony before Referee J. A. Lawson of Albany that the merger had been arranged secretly with President F. P. Fish of the Bell by George Eastman, Hiram W. Sibley, James S. Watson and others, Rochester millionaires, to sell the trust company 76 per cent of the bonds and 67 per cent of the stock of the United States Independent company at $350 for each $1000 bond and $5 a share for the stock.

Merger as a Money Saver.

This company was a Rochester enterprise, capitalized at $50,000,000. Last year its securities had declined to 2⅜ for the stock and 13½ for the bonds, and it was in a bad way, with a large floating debt. It was then that a committee was formed to sell out to the Bell.

President Fish of the latter company, and the United States company's committee had given Attorney-General Jackson the facts so completely that when yesterday's hearing was called all Deputy Attorney-General Frank L. Mott wanted to ask President Fisk of the Bell was: "Does your company control all the so-called subsidiary companies in New York State?"

"Yes," said Mr. Fish, who was excused.

Mr. Jackson remarked coldly that he did not want to hear argument in favor of going on with the proceeding, because that might disclose to the Bell people the case of the State.

Judge Herrick argued at length that the merger was legal and even benevolent, in that it enabled the United States company's investors to save something from the wreck. He cited numerous decisions and filed a brief. Charles J. Bissell of Rochester also argued along similar lines.

Arthur C. Wade of Jamestown, N. Y., president of one of the companies controlled by the United States Independent Co., argued that his interests simply appealed to the statute to prevent the consummation of a violation of the anti-trust law. Mr. Jackson said he would decide in a week. It is probable that he will ask the Supreme Court for a permanent injunction against the merger.

SWIFT'S TRIAL TUESDAY.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—Capt. Wm. Smith of the battleship Connecticut will be tried by courtmartial at Fort Monroe next Tuesday on a charge of running his vessel aground in the West Indies last January when the Connecticut was on its first cruise. Shortly after the accident an epidemic of typhoid fever occurred on the vessel and it was necessary for the vessel to maka a hurried trip to New York to transfer the patients to the Naval Hospital.

Then the Connecticut returned to Guantanamo to engage in target practice and sailed from that port yesterday for Hampton Roads. There is much mystery regarding the personnel of the courtmartial, but the detail will include five rear-admirals. Some of these who will be members, in all probability, will be Rear-Admirals Goodrich, Reiter, Berry, Bicknell and Leutze.

DRY GOODS HOUSE FIGHT.

Cox-Boogher Case Is Ended With a Fine.

Hugh and Frank Cox, salesmen, who were to have been tried in Judge Sale's court Thursday on a charge of assault to kill, preferred by Lawrence Boogher of the Carleton Dry Goods Co., following an encounter in the office of the dry goods company, pleaded guilty of common assault and were fined $25 and costs. The costs will amount to more than the fine, as both sides had summoned many witnesses.

It was charged that the brothers attacked Boogher, cutting him about the head and face. At the time of the fight, Jan. 22, it was said by witnesses that the fight arose from business rivalry.

Disposal of Garbage.

The new Municipal Assembly, which meets April 16, will have among its first problems the disposition of the city's garbage. Street Commissioner Valliant told a Post-Dispatch reporter Wednesday that a bill would be drafted providing either for the construction of a municipal reduction plant or authorizing the Board of Public Improvements to award a contract to some private corporation to dispose of the garbage.

Only One Witness to Accident.

No report was made by employes and only one witness saw the occurrence on which Mrs. Emma Sprich bases a $30,000 damage suit against the Suburban Railway Co., given to a jury in Judge McDonald's court Tuesday. Mrs. Sprich claims to have fallen from a car at Etzel avenue May 19, 1906. Mrs. Katie Conway testified in a deposition that she saw Mrs. Sprich fall from the rear platform. She said the conductor was on the front platform with the motorman. Mrs. Sprich was given a verdict for $2500.
